

WILL ASK ASSEMBLY TO ORDER OHIO SALOONS CLOSED AT 10 O'CLOCK

Columbus, O., Jan. 18.—A measure providing for closing all saloons in Ohio at 10 p. m. will be introduced in the house tomorrow, according to statements made in executive circles today. The bill is said to be the product of Hamilton county "drys."

Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the anti-saloon league denied today that the bill had been originated by him or the organization of which he is the head but said he would support it. Another Hamilton county proposal to tax every wagon delivering liquor to private consumers $1,000, is also said to have originated from "dry" sources.

LIVING VICTIMS FOUND IN RUINS OF ITALY'S QUAKE

Rome, Jan. 18.—Rescue work today throughout the wilderness created by the earthquake last Wednesday continued slowly and under great difficulties. Each excavation serves to verify earlier reports of the probable casualties, though here and there, despite the fact that five days have elapsed since the catastrophe, living victims are being released from their prisons or crumbling plaster and fallen timbers.

Thousands of soldiers and civilians including many members of the nobility, gradually are systematizing the relief work and are getting food and shelter supplies over the obstructed roads to stricken towns and villages. The relief work now, however, overshadows the rescue efforts.

Big Fund Available
For Use By Pope

The pope, according to the observance, has sent aid to all the bishops in the earthquake zone. A fund of 20,000,000 lire ($1,000,000) has been received by the pontiff thus far. About 7,500 refugees, 2,000 of them injured, have reached here to date. The probable property lost is indicated by one estimate that it will exceed 300,000,000 lire, ($60,000,000).

No official figures are yet available.

Advices Cutters For Flood Use In Ohio Valley

Washington, Jan. 18.—In a report today to congress by Commandant E. R. Bertholf, of the United States revenue cutter service, it is pointed out that although there were no serious floods in the Ohio and Mississippi river valleys during the year the previous recommendation for three light draft cutters to be used there in flood times, should not be overlooked by congress.

Heavy Storms On Battle Line

Paris, Jan. 18.—The French official statement given out this afternoon recites French successes yesterday at various points along the battle line, most of them artillery engagements. There was stormy weather yesterday in Flanders as well as in the Vosges.

HEAD OF NATION IS GRANDFATHER NOW

Washington, Jan. 18.—President Wilson today was a proud grandfather. A fine, seven-and-a-half pound boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, has made its appearance at the White House. It was the President's first grandchild and he was overjoyed because it was a boy, having had no boys of his own.

The baby arrived at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, although formal announcement of the fact was not made until 6 o'clock. The youngster made known his advent into the world by a series of lusty cries.

Both mother and baby were reported to be doing well. Congratulations over the birth of the baby, the clearest to have been born at the White House, continue to pour into the White House today. It was believed that the baby would be named for his grandfather.

If the Sayre baby follows the precedent he set during his first night he will be a model infant. He gave his attendants little trouble. A large heap of articles sent by members of the Wilson and Sayre families and friends were ready for the baby as soon as he should show interest in them. Several baby baskets had also been sent to the White House, but the one used was prepared by Mrs. Sayre herself.

Mr. Sayre, who arrived last night after the birth of his son, vied with the President today in displaying pride over the new addition to the White House family.

"GOD BLESS YOU" SAYS PRESIDENT TO SUNDAY

Washington, Jan. 18.—"Billy" Sunday, the revivalist, members of his family and a number of religious workers from Philadelphia, who came here today to assist Sunday at a revival meeting, were received today by President Wilson. Secretary Bryan introduced the revivalist to the president.

"God bless you for the work you are doing," said the president.

Mr. Sunday congratulated the president on the birth of his grandson yesterday.

"Mr. Bryan told me that he and I are now the grandfathers of seven children," replied the president. "He has six and I have one."

BIG PENNSYLVANIA BANK CLOSES DOORS

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 18.—The First National Bank of Uniontown failed to open its doors this morning at nine o'clock and waiting customers were told that the board of directors was in session and an announcement would soon be made.

A large crowd gathered in front of the bank, and a few minutes before noon a notice was posted on the door announcing that the institution was closed by order of the directors. President J. V. Thompson said that the bank would not re-open until there was enough money on the counters to pay all depositors.

The First National Bank of Uniontown has a capital of $100,000 and in the last statement the surplus was given as $1,000,000. Recently the bank paid an extra dividend of 700 per cent, until which time it led the roll of honor banks.

President Thompson is one of the largest individual owners of coal lands in the country and it was reported last week that he was about to close deals in coal lands amounting to $18,000,000. Failure of these transactions, it was reported today, caused the closing of the bank.

PREPARE TO EXTRADITE THAW

New York, Jan. 18.—The first move to bring Harry K. Thaw back to this state on extradition papers, as directed by the United States supreme court, will be taken tomorrow, when William T. Jerome will apply to the court for a certified copy of the decision directing that Thaw be delivered to the New York authorities by New Hampshire immediately after receiving the order, according to announcement today.

Mr. Jerome and Sheriff Hambley, of Dutchess county, will go to Manchester to take Thaw into custody.

DISMISS O. N. C. TEST CASE

Washington, Jan. 18.—The supreme court dismissed today the suit of Lieut. Col. Daniel C. Stearns against Brig. General Geo. S. Wood, both of the Ohio National Guard, in which it was sought to test the power of the president to order state militia into foreign territory in case of war without mustering them in as volunteers.

The court held that Col. Stearns failed to show a sufficient personal interest to support the suit.

PROBE POOL AGREEMENTS

Washington, Jan. 18.—President Wilson, it became known today has included pooling agreements in the possible causes for the recent rise in the price of wheat and flour which he had directed Attorney General Gregory to investigate.

FLEECE SOCIETY FRIENDS

New York, Jan. 18.—Francis Griffin, an attorney and his wife Clara H. Griffin, pleaded guilty today to indictments charging them with using the mails to defraud their acquaintances of high social standing out of sums aggregating $400,000.

It was alleged that they borrowed large sums of money on fraudulent representations that they had obtained large contracts for government stenographic work.

Kill Plan To Make Washington "Dry"

Washington, Jan. 18.—The senate defeated today, 40 to 38, the motion to suspend its rules for consideration of a prohibition rider to the District of Columbia appropriation bill. A two-thirds majority was necessary to suspend the rules, the rules prohibiting general legislation in appropriation bills and the motion failed to receive even a majority. The debate has lasted five days.

After the vote, Senator Sheppard stated he would make no further effort to press the prohibition issue in connection with the District of Columbia bill but would bring it up either as a separate measure or as an amendment to some other bill.

Washington, Jan. 18.—President Wilson has set aside three hours next Friday for a public hearing on the literacy test provisions of the immigration bill.

Advocates and opponents of the bill will be heard in the East when President Taft held a hearing before vetoing a similar bill.

WOMEN ARRESTED IN RIOT OF CHICAGO'S UNEMPLOYED

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Twenty-one persons, six of whom are women, arrested yesterday in the streets in front of the Hull House, a social settlement, were to appear in court today to answer charges of inciting a riot.

Mrs. Lucy Parsons, widow of the anarchist leader for murder after the Haymarket riots several years ago, was among those arrested.

London, Jan. 18.—London is re-echoing that this is the forty-fourth anniversary of the proclamation of Wilhelm I, as German emperor, and in the British capital is expected that the day will bring news of a widespread German effort to follow up with a still more important movement the success achieved last week in the neighborhood of Soissons.

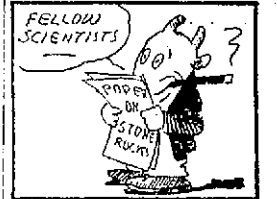

In London it is believed that the Germans have adopted what is virtually a defensive role to the west of Warsaw—some British observers arguing that this has been forced upon them by superior Russian numbers—and that these defense tactics synchronize with the movement of many thousands of Teutonic troops from Poland to the French and Belgian battle fields.

The fighting at Soissons, some British commentators declare to be the precursor of the entry of these new troops upon a vigorous offensive, perhaps an attempt to cross the river Aisne. At Soissons the French failed to hold their positions on the northern bank of the river and the Germans to attempt to gain the southern bank is regarded as a development to be expected. As to future engagements in this section, it appears to be a fact that the French artillery on the hills south of the Aisne commands all the approaches to the river and that it will have to be reckoned with.

In the eastern arena of the war the steady pressure, which the arrival of one million of last year levies has enabled the Russians to exert upon the Germans, according to news dispatches reaching London, has been slowly pushing back the German line to the west of Warsaw.

The Russian defeat of the Turks, if the claims of Petrograd are fully borne out, was so decisive that it may mark the close of the Ottoman attempt to invade Russia in the Caucasian region. The Russian victory probably will free enough of the Caucasian army to oppose effectively the Turkish forces which are approaching the frontier farther eastward, through Persia.

BILLY BUTT-IN The Times Weather Man

Ever since that earthquake the amateur scientists hereabouts have been pestering the life out of me with questions and suggestions. Nothing like an earthquake or volcanic eruption or other sort of violent cataclysm for stirring up the amateur scientist. The latest thing I've been asked to elucidate is "How old is the human race?"

Anybody who's got any direct evidence to give along that line is welcome to answer in my place—all mine is circumstantial and I'm dead set against circumstantial evidence. I deal only in facts—like this for instance:

Ohio—Local snows tonight and Tuesday. Partly cloudy.
Kentucky—Cloudy tonight; probably snow and somewhat colder in east portion; Tuesday part cloudy.
West Virginia—Snow or rain and colder tonight; Tuesday cloudy and probably snow and colder in mountains.

MEXICO CITY AGAIN TORN WITH GENERAL DISORDERS

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 18.—Gen. Villa with the main group of his army, is expected to return today to Mexico City in an attempt to adjust the situation of the convention government, incidental to the fight Saturday from the capital of Emilio Guiterrez, the provisional president and the appointment to that place of Roque Gonzalez Garza.

Mexico City was reported in a state of disorder only equalled by the Diaz-Huerta uprising by the Mexican government in 1912.

With Small Garrison

Washington, Jan. 18.—When General Guiterrez left Mexico City yesterday morning he took with him most of the troops guarding the capital. State department advisers indicate that Guiterrez's present command is 500 strong and officials here infer that few soldiers remained in the capital from the fact that the first of General Garza, the new provisional president, was to arrive the police force temporarily for military purposes.

Break Between Villa
And Zapata Reported

So far there has been no contradiction of reports that Villa and Zapata have broken off friendly relations. Villa is on his way from Aguas Calientes where he has a considerable army assembled, and is expected to enter the capital tomorrow today. As part of the business remaining in the capital is said to be made up of Zapata forces, the report of a breach between the two leaders will soon be put to a practical test.

A telegram to the state department, dated January 16, 9 a. m., from Mexico City, states that all business houses were closed and uncertainty existed as to what faction controlled the city. Another telegram sent at 6 p. m., the same day, said the reason for the business departure of General Guiterrez was still unknown. The state department for the federal district has given assurances that there was no cause for alarm in the capital.

ITALY WILL NOT ACCEPT AID FROM OTHER COUNTRIES

Washington, Jan. 18.—The American Red Cross was still awaiting today a reply from the Italian government to its inquiry whether aid would be accepted from the United States for earthquake sufferers. The latest message from Ambassador Page at Rome said the Italian government would not accept foreign assistance owing to the present international situation.

SHIP PURCHASE BILL OCCUPIES CONGRESS

Washington, Jan. 18.—Chief interest in congress today centered in the outcome of tonight's caucus of senate Democrats on the government ship purchase bill, for upon its action depends the fate of that measure, all hope of the passage at this session of any general legislation as well as some of the appropriation bills practically having been given up owing to the legislative tangle in the senate.

Tonight's caucus, the second one on the shipping bill, is for the purpose of passing upon a number of amendments to the measure. Democrats are divided over the form of the bill, vigorous opposition having developed to the government ownership features at Saturday's night caucuses. They are confronted also with the unalterable opposition of the Republicans who have announced their intention of defeating the bill if possible. Some of the Democrats believe, however, that if the government ownership and a government controlled steamship corporation feature are eliminated from the bill at tonight's caucuses the measure can be passed and that it will have the support of progressive Republicans.

TOLEDO CASE RESTS

Columbus, Jan. 18.—Governor Willis today said he had received four additional affidavits concerning Mayor Keller, of Toledo, but that he had not had time to inspect them. He declared no immediate action would be taken on the request to suspend or dismiss the Toledo mayor.

tal, adding that he had sufficient troops for the preservation of order and was looking for no attack on the city.

Assembly At Work Today

Columbus, Jan. 18.—All was in readiness today for actual starting of the law-making machinery in the assembly, when both houses meet at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the third week of the session.

Speaker Osawyer expected to announce the appointment of committees when the house convenes and the rules committee probably will present its report for adoption.

MINERS WILL BE EVICTED TUESDAY

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 18.—A number of mines in the east Ohio coal field were opened today on the open shop basis, but reports to the offices of the United Mine Workers declared that comparatively few men were at work. Large numbers of striking miners are employed putting the

MORGAN TELLS WILSON OF RUSSIAN WAR LOAN

Washington, Jan. 18.—J. P. Morgan discussed the foreign exchange situation with President Wilson today and informed the president that conditions were improving. He mentioned, incidentally, the credit of $12,000,000 established by the Russian government in the United States through Mr. Morgan's banking firm.

Mr. Morgan explained that his firm has not arranged for a direct loan of money to Russia but that debts owing by Russia in this country for the purchase of supplies would be met through Morgan and company.

Mr. Morgan also planned to see Secretary Lane of the interior department regarding the Copper River and Northwestern railroad, which he has offered to sell to the government as a part of the projected federal railroad system connecting the Alaskan coal fields with the coast.

Columbus, O., Jan. 18.—Five federal inspectors from the New England states have arrived to help Ohio inspectors in stamping out the outbreak of gypsy moth at Bratsburg, near Cleveland.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bridgeton, N.J.—"I want to thank you thousands of times for the wonderful good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered very much from a female trouble. I had bearing down pains, was irregular and at times could hardly walk across the room. I was unable to do my housework or attend to my baby I was so weak. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me a world of good, and now I am strong and healthy, can do my work and tend my baby. I advise all suffering women to take it and get well as I did."—Mrs. FANNIE COOPER, R.F.D., Bridgeton, N.J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

perfected a splendid organization, one that once gets under way will undoubtedly prove a mighty force.

The attendance reached beyond the most sanguine expectation of the promoters, and the enthusiasm shown speaks volumes for the intention of those present. The promoters want it distinctly understood that the organization has no selfish aims. The movement was launched in the hope that the church membership would awaken to the opportunity of doing more systematic missionary work. The organization which will be known as the "Laymen's Missionary Movement" will lend all possible assistance wherever and whenever their services are required. It is hoped to inculcate the spirit of more liberal giving, not only for foreign but for home missions.

George D. Scudder presided as chairman, and several brisk talks were made, notably by Mr. Scudder, W. D. Anderson, Rector E. A.

Powell, and Rev. W. T. Chiland. The recommendation of the nominating committee, consisting of George D. Scudder, John McMillan and Charles M. Howland was unanimously adopted and was as follows:

Executive committee: E. F. Rideout, chairman; Rev. T. H. McAfee, vice chairman; Maurice Coe, secretary; William Hazelbeck, treasurer; Conrad Roth, E. C. Hood, Rev. Albert Marting.

Finance committee: Conrad Roth, chairman; Dr. S. P. Fetter, J. W. Jordau.

Publicity committee: E. C. Hood, chairman; F. W. Sheridan, J. E. Cross.

Statistical and library committee: Rev. Albert Marting, B. Heid, C. W. Weyand.

While the work is now in the hands of the executive committee, nevertheless it is proposed for the organization to hold a banquet in the near future.

MAN WITH CONSCIENCE WAS ADJUDGED INSANE

An affidavit was filed in probate court Monday against John Kimpling, charging him with being insane. He was adjudged insane later at an inquest before Judge Beatty, and ordered committed to the Athens asylum for the insane. He will be taken to that institution Tuesday morning. Officer Roy Moore filed the affidavit.

John Kimpling, the ex-fireman, tramp and pseudo detective, who has been a source of annoyance to front and Portsmouth authorities of late, was again arrested early Monday morning.

Kimpling, it is said, had threatened to kill an N. & W. terminal employee for ordering him to vacate the scale house at the East Portsmouth terminals where he had spent the night. Picking up a club he entered a nearby caboose and vowed he would brain the first man who dared enter. The police were notified and Officers Moore and Goings hurried to the scene. They met Kimpling as he emerged from a restaurant on Norfolk street. He willingly submitted to arrest, his only complaint being that they were not going to treat him to an automobile ride instead of a trip down town on a street car.

As soon as the mayor learned of the arrest he ordered Kimpling taken before the probate court, the N. & W. employee whom he threatened, having promised to prefer a lunacy charge against him. Kimpling was given a workhouse sentence last week but it was suspended on condition that he return to West Virginia and remain there. Officer Beaumont had caught him acting in a suspicious manner around the Alex M. Gloeckner hardware store. When searched a piece of garden hose with some lead pipe attached one end, was found concealed on his person. He boasted that it was his "fighting stick and grandma chaser." He made a threat to "do up some of these mayors around here."

Some weeks ago Kimpling, who is a homeless wanderer, became conscience stricken and surrendered to the front authorities, declaring that he had assaulted and thrown a negro from a swiftly moving freight train near Haverhill, two months ago. His story was discredited and after a few days he was released. Kimpling when searched Monday had a petition containing quite a number of signatures asking his appointment as detective to succeed the late James A. Baucus.

Divorce Sought

Judge Thomas has taken under advisement the divorce case of Lemora Stevens against Robert Stevens, which was heard in common pleas court Monday. The wife seeks a decree on the grounds of neglect and desertion. They were married in Kentucky in 1909, and, according to the wife, Stevens deserted her a few months later. They have one child. Mrs. Stevens was represented by Attorney Theodore K. Funk.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

The Boy Scouts meet Tuesday night at seven o'clock. The debate will be a positive reality. Mr. Kinsey will be present. Mr. Earl Puckett is interested in the scouts and will be there. Half hour of athletics.

Section One meets Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 at the church.

Section Two will meet Thursday at 1:30 at the church.

Section Four will meet Tuesday at 1:30 with Mrs. Millie Black, 720 Campbell avenue.

Section Five Friday afternoon with Mrs. Reinhart, of Franklin avenue.

Section Three Thursday at 2:30 with Mrs. Bowser, 1124 Tenth street.

The Men's Union yesterday afternoon secured 460 pledges from as many members for the current expenses of the church. These pledges represent $70.18 per week or a total of nearly $3700 for the year. This is a wonderful work for an afternoon but it is only a beginning. There are more than 1200 members and the Men's Union earnestly desire a pledge from every member. This is what the "every member canvass" means. The men will go right on with the work and not stop until it is really complete. President Cheyney and his men are manifesting great enthusiasm and are rendering a monumental service.

No revival in recent years has seen a more auspicious beginning than the one yesterday. The minister and members are pronouncing Prof. Fitz the very finest song leader and soloist that they know. As a musician he is a thorough teacher and a real artist. An educated, cultured Christian gentleman with a wide and varied experience and thorough training he brings to the task a really wonderful combination of qualifications.

Daubler and company who were so kind in our hour of distress, and the sexton of Greenlawn cemetery.

The couple will later be married according to the rites of the Catholic church by Father Mertin of the West Side, according to the statement in their application for a license. The groom is an Italian by birth, and is a prosperous young farmer of the Pond Creek section.

SUMMER COTTAGES ARE RAIDED BY ROBBERS

River pirates reaped a rich harvest when they raided the summer cottages of Charles Wertz, Otto and Charles Zoellner and the home of Charles Emmett, located in Camp Riverside, near Sejoville, several days ago. The robberies were discovered Saturday when Val Roth, a local tinner, went to Sejoville to do some work on Mr. Emmett's property. Mr. Emmett and Will and Harry Emmett hurried to their summer home, only to find it completely ransacked, as were also the Wertz and Zoellner cottages.

It is thought the robbery was committed some time Friday night. A fine camera, rubber boots, all kinds of canned fruit, groceries, old clothes, vegetables and everything in the line of odds and ends was carried off from the Emmett home. Nothing was left undisturbed by the robbers in their search. The remains of a line meal were on the table when the Emmetts arrived Saturday morning. And on the porch posts show that the robbers climbed up the posts and entered through an upstairs window. They left by the front door. The thieves took only the best of the clothes.

In the Wertz cottage the thieves got away with two valuable shotguns, a rifle, a revolver, cooking utensils and bed clothing. Mr. Wertz stated Monday that he would give a reward of $50 to any information that would lead to the arrest of the guilty parties.

In the Zoellner cottage the intruders left with bed clothing, cooking utensils and even carried off a small stove. Heavy wire for rose bushes provided a regular ladder for the robbers at the Zoellner house, where muddy footprints were found on the roof.

Miss Pearl Monaghan has been ill with the grip for several days at her home on Third street.

IT WILL ALL COME OUT IN THE WASH!

That's a saying as optimistic as it is homely; as true as it is common. It's a mighty good line to bear in mind at the opening of the new year.

With the war in Europe; close money at home; cotton surplus in the South; apple surplus down in Maine; labor troubles here and there; living higher than Gilroy's kite; railroads torn up the back; big men in finance and the state catching thunder from right and left—with these and a few other little things a good many worthy citizens have lost the springs in the lower jaws; faces are all too long; the worry look is in the eye.

But it will all come out in the wash. It always has and it is coming now. The lever on our business car is even now in second speed and there's every chance that we'll soon be rolling along on the high.

In the meantime stop the guessing contest you have been having with yourself and settle down to some of the good makes of shoes sold by Baker.

A NEW TIMES FEATURE.

The Times today begins the publication of a new feature, one that will be found of special interest to the young folks of the family. The feature consists of a series of Animal Jingles. They are unusually clever and will furnish a little amusement as well as giving a good moral at the end. These Animal Jingles are written by Alice Crew Gall, a daughter of former justice of the supreme court, William B. Crew.

Thus gradually we are rounding out The Times in an effort to make it a complete home paper, one that will interest all classes of readers from the oldest to the youngest. We have a few more good things in store and will shortly announce them.

TWO WEEKS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The following review of the first two weeks of the legislature that was elected to "run the state on business principles," will be found both interesting and illuminating:

Columbus, O., Jan. 18.—In behalf of economy the Republicans of the Eighty-first general assembly foiled away two whole weeks, and then took adjournment without accomplishing anything, or even completely perfecting an organization. The journals which appeared on the desks of the members at the closing day of last week when adjournment was taken indicated that the Senate and the House had actually met in session and had by their first net created the numerous elective positions formerly held by appointment under civil service, a page of the journal being given over to record the election of ensplendor cleaners.

Then again in the interest of economy it is recorded that each member of the assembly has been voted a brand new set of the general code of Ohio laws, at twenty-five dollars per head.

But the greatest act of the first two weeks was that which voted to certain and sundry gentlemen the sum of fifty dollars per each for the assistance lent by them in the organization of the houses. And just to get in while the getting is good, some of the men who stood close duty and carried messages in the organization of the house two years ago were included for good measure.

In the discussion of the house resolution, Representative John Kramer, Democratic floor leader, called attention to the fact that a good time for the Republicans to keep a pledge for economy was now at the beginning of the new administration. He ironically referred to the fact that if as charged there was a treasury deficit then there was all the more reason to hedge on unnecessary expenses, and get busy in efficient manner.

The Republican Senate seems to be in better working order than the Republican House. At least it does not take them so long to do nothing and they can reach the point of adjournment in quicker time. However, when it comes to hunting out presents the two houses of the general assembly run nip and tuck, with the difference that the senate is more liberal and goes out into the highways and byways. For example the last act of record of the Senate is the vote which made a present of fifty dollars to Clark C. Doughty, for assistance in organization, when as a matter of fact Mr. Doughty did not get any nearer than the other side of Broad street. It may be enlightening to know that the present of the fifty dollars was voted from the Republican side of the Senate, and in the face of the fact that in caucus the Democrats held he was not entitled to it.

Speaker Conover plans to be czar of the House, and the majority is chafing under the leash. Not a member of the House was consulted in the making of committees, and the speaker served notice that if he wanted any information as to the fitness of men, he would ask for it. This taken in connection with Governor Willis' statement to the press that no one was authorized to speak or act for him but the party members guessing.

Gallipolis welcomes the saloon back after an absence of six years with open arms. Now a year from date let us hear unbiased opinion as to the effect upon the material prosperity of Gallipolis, which was the live issue in the campaign.

Of course Squire Pratt does not expect that that horse shoe he so ungrudgingly and unselfishly sent to Governor Willis will bring the giver any such good luck as connecting him with the state pay roll. Still there might be stranger things to happen. Fred Barker should take notice and send a box of his stogies up to our new ruler.

"Anyway I hope that Warren Harding will be thoughtful enough to write Charlie Dixon a letter from Honolulu and tell him how much he enjoys the sunshine out there," said the man sitting next to us on the street car this morning as he looked over at the smiling face of the New Boston leader and feed projector. "W. G. owes Charlie that much after fleeing the country to escape his feed."

At least Count Bechtold was some success as a starter of the greatest war in history even if the old Emperor of Austria did tie a can to him in the middle of the conflict.

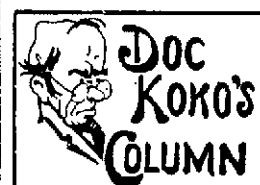

It is the Germans turn today to capture the trenches around Dixmude.

FAIR WARNING.

We Need To Live
We need to live—for life is more than eating, drinking, wearing. Than seeking pleasures door to door
And further, thither, furrier, By artificial dress and speech
We teach the world to doubt us, And cry for riches out of reach
While joy lies all about us.

We need to live—for life is more
Than drinking, wearing, eating, The outer mortal striving for,
The inner mortal cheating,
The tinsel things of life we clutch While skies are blue above us,
While here beside us at our touch Are those who long to love us.

We need to learn for life is more
Than wearing, eating, drinking, A little less of later lore
And more of early thinking,
We need to live and love and learn

The simple things to cheer us,
To truth established to return, And learn the lesson near us,
—Boughlas Malloch.

Hall Steps Into Walters' Shoes

Columbus, Ohio, January 18.—As foreboded for weeks, Governor Frank B. Willis has announced the appointment as state banking superintendent of Harry T. Hall, of East Liverpool, to succeed George Walters, of Portsmouth, whose name he withdrew from the senate this week.

It is the new Chief Executive's first nomination outside of his immediate official family. With it is carried the selection of three other candidates for appointment in this department. They are: R. F. Skidmore, of East Liberty, cashier of the Hamilton bank there; R. P. Ambrose, Assistant cashier of the Merchants' National Bank at Hillsboro, and Dudley H. Foster, of Toledo, who was seeking the post of state inspector of building and loan associations.

The confidential announcement of the coming appointment of Skidmore, Ambrose and Foster indicates clearly that the retiring superintendent, George Walters, will not be retained in the department, although he was a candidate for the headship. After the retirement of former Superintendent Frank Baxter he served until Emory Lattanner was appointed, and when that official resigned in December Governor James M. Cox once more placed him at the head of the bureau.

Our New Children's Feature

Mrs. Gall is a daughter of Judge Crew, late of the Ohio Supreme bench. Possessed of a knack for versifying, she began writing to entertain the children of her family. She succeeded so well in this that she was persuaded to write for publication, so that children generally might read of the adventures of all the animals, as told in her whimsically charming way.

Dora Duck
(Who Had a Bad Temper.)

Miss Dora Duck lived in a field and swam upon a pond; She was a lovely thing to see, a most decided blond. She had a nice, flat, yellow beak and pretty eyes of black, And everybody said she had a most melodious quack.

But Dora Duck, I grieve to say, one dreadful failing had. Her temper, so her family said, was most amazing bad. Whenever she went on the pond with other ducks to play, She'd scold and make an awful fuss unless she had her way.

Her elders sighed and said, "Oh, dear, she'll come to some bad end Unless she makes an effort her dreadful fault to mend." But Dora went right on her way and did not try at all, Until she had a lesson which cured her once for all.

She went out with her sisters to swim one pleasant day. At first they all enjoyed themselves and had a splendid play. Then Dora said: "I'll tell you what I think would be some fun; Let's go and swim on Joneses' pond, it's such a lovely one."

But all the ducklings said, "Oh, no, we will not go away. For Joneses' dog is big and fierce, you've heard our Mother say." So Dora went off alone, as angry as could be. A nice young duck in such a rage is pitiful to see.

But when she got to Joneses' pond the dog ran down the hill. He barked: "How dare you come in here? I'll eat you up, I will!" He stood upon the bank and barked: "I'll eat you, I declare!" You're such an ugly tempered duck, I'm sure no one would care."

Then Dora Duck began to cry as loudly as she could: "Please, Joneses' dog, don't eat me up; I'll promise to be good. I'll try to keep my temper and always will be kind. If you will let me go I'll be a better duck, you'll find."

At last the dog said, "Very well, but just remember this: The very first time you are cross I'll eat you up, young miss." So Dora went back to the farm, a great deal wiser bird, And from that day to this she's kept her temper, so I've heard.

A temper is an ugly thing, no one would really choose it; But this is strange, the worse it is, the worse you hate to lose it.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT TRINITY BIBLE CLASS

(By P. V. D.)
The big class showed the attendance record up to 200 Sunday morning. Early in the game it was seen that last Sunday's record was going to be sadly shattered, and everybody had the "smile that won't come off" when Mr. Journey of Park avenue, walked in with a delegation of eleven brand splinter new members he was certainly given the glad hand. Mr. Hood's side made a gain of 41 and it is up to Mr. Bridwell's side to shake the bushes the coming week or begin to prepare to put on the big show. Mr. Greshed led the singing, assisted by Miss McMillen at the piano. After the opening exercises busting John McMillen rehearsed the class on the old "Ninety and Nine" song that 99 men are to sing next Sunday evening when Rev. Strocker preaches a special sermon to the men. It's going to be sung to old time that our grand old dices sung away back in the old log churches and none of these new fangled tunes gone. It looks like there will be one hundred and ninety-nine that will sing instead of ninety-nine from the way the boys went at it. The Pilgrim Singers favored the class with a fine selection entitled "Is There Room For Me?" We are mighty glad to say they are going to be on the job every Sunday from this time on.

The lesson "The Call of God" was then taken up by the teacher. He stated that "the greatest thing to learn today is the close connection of sin with suffering and punishment. Israel's history not only emphasizes this but it is the utterable law of God." Gilead by the two tests of flood did not show so much lack of faith in God as he did in himself. What this world needs is men who are willing when God calls them. He said we all are to come to want some one else to do God's work. We need true leaders and when God calls He always chooses a busy man. The lesson proved very interesting and profitable and the teacher closed with the thought that God has some special work for every man to do, and that He looks first upon the heart and not a man's social or intellectual gifts.

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Jan. 18.—Special stocks were again the prominent feature of today's market, standard issues being relatively inactive and backward.

Leaders recovered from the early lethargy later, Reading, Lehigh Valley, Union Pacific and other representative shares gaining a point or more. The close was strong.

Conflicting gains and losses characterized today's early trading, although changes were trivial at the outset. A majority of the leaders made slight improvement over last week's final prices, while some less prominent issues were lower.

London's attitude toward this fact was not encouraging, practically the entire international list showing declines which extended to a point or thereabouts in Reading, St. Paul, Southern Pacific, New York Central and Atchafalaya.

By the end of the half hour the local market showed a firmer tendency all around, Canadian Pacific and Bethlehem Steel gaining a full point.

Profit taking had some effect on the moderate rise of the first hour, most prominent shares losing their advantage by midday.

Reading, Bethlehem Steel and United States Steel fell back and the metal group, which had shown some strength on a further advance in Copper, yielded with the active list.

Fertilizer issues, notably American Agricultural Chemical, Virginia-Carolina Chemical and

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Jan. 18.—President Wilson's order for a government inquiry relative to prices of wheat and flour will be considered today by considerable selling of wheat, and a temporary setback of 1 1/2 in quotations, but the market quickly reacted, and secured a net advance of 3/4. Later a new decline took place, influenced to some extent by a revival talk of the possibility of an embargo being put on exports. During these changes, prices for May had a range of 2c from $1.40 to $1.42.

After opening 3/4 off to 1/2 up, the market as a whole kept within narrower limits than the May delivery.

Although corn at the outset had a downward tendency with wheat, good demand for export soon led to a decided upturn. Early sellers who attempted to sell found little sale. Opening prices varied from 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 lower were following by a rise all around to well above Saturday night level.

Oats took much the same course as corn. Strength that developed, however, was not so pronounced. High prices for hogs lifted provisions. The volume of trading was fair.

Fresh rallies, however, ensued. There were advices from Liverpool that supplies were insufficient to meet requirements. Besides, the United States visible supply total showed a big falling off. The close was unsettled but 3/4 to 1/2 higher than Saturday night.

A further advance accompanied gossip that an embargo on wheat would increase the European demand for corn. May corn jumped to the highest price in January, for more than 20 years. The close was steady at an advance of 1 1/2 and 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 net.

RETAIL MERCHANTS

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

The Retail Merchants' Association of the city have passed the following resolutions on the death of George M. Appel:

"The Retail Merchants' Association of the city of Portsmouth, Ohio, renews with profound regret and sorrow the death of George M. Appel, one of its most useful, valued and honored members."

He was in every sense a self-made man of the very highest type; and yet with innate modesty, and even humility, never assuming credit for the making or personal knowledge of the fact.

His start in life was of the most humble nature, with no influential sponsor to push or advance him; but by strict attention to the interest of his employers, by his industry, his integrity of purpose and character, and with an intense desire to master every detail of his employment and business, he early demonstrated his superior talent and capacity for mercantile and commercial pursuits, which soon gave him high rank in the business world and later placed him at the head of a great commercial enterprise.

The life and career of this grand man is an inspiration and a splendid example and pattern for the youth and young men of this city to emulate, follow and profit by.

Although not personally engaged in retail business, he nevertheless affiliated with the Retail Merchants' Association and always evinced the deepest interest in its welfare and advancement and freely contributed thereto by his counsel, of his time and from his purse. He was a public-spirited citizen, deeply interested in the growth and commercial progress of his native city; and by his personal efforts very largely contributed to such growth and progress.

He was the personification of "a Christian Gentleman," and constantly and consistently "practiced what he preached," always seeking to do good for his less fortunate fellow-men, extending charity freely, but always quietly, modestly and secretly.

It requires a big, warm heart, a heart full of Christian love and charity, to do the things this man so unostentatiously did.

OUT OF THE GLOOM

Many a Gloomy Countenance in Portsmouth Now Lightens With Happiness

A bad back makes you gloomy. Can't be happy with continual backache.

The aches and pains of a bad back are frequently due to weak kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills are recommended for weak kidneys.

So Portsmouth citizens testify. James Hughes, prop. bicycle shop, 2125 Gallia St., Portsmouth, says: "My kidneys were weak and my back was lame. When I bent over to fix a bicycle, sharp twinges darted through the small of my back and I often had to sit down until it eased up. The kidney secretions were scanty and highly colored. I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Flood & Blake's Pharmacy, and they gave me great relief."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same as Mr. Hughes had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

He will be long missed by this Association and its individual members; by the people of this community; by his business associates, personal friends and relatives, and his place in the various walks of life that he so graced cannot be filled.

But he will be most missed and mourned by his sorrowing and devoted wife and daughters and his aged mother and family, to whom our hearts and sincerest sympathy and condolence go out in this, their great bereavement. As a feeble expression of the irreparable loss we have all sustained in the untimely death of our friend and associate.

It is ordered that this memorial be spread upon the records of our Association, and that a copy hereof be transmitted to the bereaved family of our departed friend and associate.

To Cure Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected a complete cure after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick tell how they have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmit (Double Strength), about 7c worth. Take this home, and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and 1 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmit is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this recipe a trial and free themselves from this destructive disease.

BOY SCOUTS TO "PREACH" ON 5TH ANNIVERSARY DAY

Portsmouth Boy Scouts are going to extol the virtues of their rapidly growing organization, how their numbers have been increased, and what good they have accomplished, from the pulpits of the churches of Portsmouth on Sunday, February 7. On this day, the fifth anniversary of the founding of their organization, will be fittingly celebrated, as it will be in every city in America in which Boy Scouts have invaded. This became known Monday, when the Ministerial Association, at its meeting, passed a resolution to join in the impressive exercises and turn over the pulpits of their churches to Scouts, who will occupy them, and who, no doubt, will have an interesting message to deliver.

The following Boy Scouts have been assigned to do the speaking on this day: Frank Davis, Corwin Knowles, Howard Graf, Arthur Doll, Russell Williams, Darsie Hamilton, M. H. Shumway, C. M. Boggs, John Higgins, Cecil Tidd and Carl Walker.

In the evening a union meeting will be held in Trinity church and it will be addressed by Rev. T. Lloyd Strecker, who will speak on "Lincoln, the Great Scout."

During the two years the Boy Scouts have been in Portsmouth 500 boys have joined this worthy society. There are ten troops under the direction of M. F. H. Kinsey, who gives all of his time to the work.

C. & O. GIVES OUT THE DETAILS OF ROUTE; ASK RIGHT TO CROSS ROADS

High officials of the C. & O. Northern Railroad company appeared before the county commissioners Monday afternoon to petition for the right to cross the county roads at seventeen different points in Scioto county with the proposed new line from the Ohio river to Columbus.

Only two of the proposed crossings are at grade, the others being either overhead or underground crossings. The detailed plans and blue-prints filed with the board at the same time indicate that the company's engineers have provided long approaches with the view in every instance of two hundred feet, doing away with the probabilities of accidents if reasonable caution is used.

As narrated some time ago, the route of the new road in Scioto county extends from the bridge now under construction above Sciotoville along the Portsmouth, Harrisonville and California turnpike to Harrisonville, and thence north west into Pike county touching with two miles at Stockdale.

The first crossing is near the bridge across the little Scioto river near Sciotoville, and will be an underground crossing across Gallia Pike, with a forty foot clearance and an eighty foot span; the second one, another underground crossing across the Porter township road near the Haldeman farm, one mile beyond the first one.

The next three crossings, all underground, are across the P. H. & C. turnpike and are located as follows: one-half mile above Sciotoville at the Narrows; at the Merwin farm beyond the Narrows; and the third at the Hockenheimer farm. Slight changes in the road are asked for at the latter two crossings to make them more easy of approach and less dangerous.

The sixth crossing is at a Harrison township road at what is known as Tiek Ridge, and is an overhead crossing.

The seventh, eighth and ninth crossings are all underground and all across the P. H. & C. turnpike, the first at the Hayward farm, the second at the Dan White Hollow, and the third at the Frank Lynch farm. Permission to change the road is asked for at each place for the same reasons as cited above.

The tenth crossing is at the village of Harrisonville, and is a grade crossing, the first one encountered in the county. The company represents that it would be impossible to unload passengers and freight at Harrisonville

PUMP MEN COME TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION

John H. McGowan, W. Knight, and J. S. Henly arrived here from Cincinnati, Monday, to confer with city board of control relative to the latter's demands for "better pumping facilities" at the new water works.

Mr. McGowan at once sought a hearing with Mayor Frick, asking for a conference this evening at 7 o'clock. The mayor told him that inasmuch as the city's representative, Engineer J. F. Witmer, was not on the ground, he was not disposed to hold any meeting, not caring to be guided by any subordinate or the resident engineer, W. W. Watson.

Mr. McGowan insisted on a hearing, though declaring there had been considerable talk going on.

"If its talk we are to take up there's no necessity of having any meeting, its a pumping station that will pump water, according to contract, that we are interested in," retorted the mayor.

He told Mr. McGowan that unless something substantially was done by the 22nd day of the month towards getting the pumps in such shape that they would require less fuel consumption, that the new plant would be abandoned.

Going To Cincinnati.

Thurman Reynolds, who until a short time ago was employed by the United Sheet Metal and Culvert Co., will soon move his family to Cincinnati, having accepted employment in the Queen City.

Board Favors It

Mayor Adam Frick's demand upon the board of health to reconsider its decision in voting to give City Physician Dr. Charles Wendelken an assistant for the remaining winter months provoked a spirited discussion at the special meeting held by the board Monday.

The mayor argued that the city physician should take care of the extra amount of winter work at the same salary because during the summer season he had little to keep him busy. The board members however refused to recede from their position, they contending that the increased amount of sickness and the fact that many unemployed are unable to pay for medical services entitled the city physician to temporary help.

Payment Held Up
Trustees of Rush township were in to see the commissioners Monday afternoon about the payment of bills amounting to about $300 contracted during a small pox epidemic in that township a year ago. Payment has been held up by the county auditor upon the advice of the state bureau of accounting. Prosecutor Mickelthwait will write to the attorney-general for an opinion.

On Robbery Charge.
Chief Howard Johnson of Catlettsburg, Ky., and Deputy Sheriff Rouse Arthur arrested Clay Purley of Nauvoo, late Sunday afternoon on a warrant charging him with robbing Ballard Blackburn of Catlettsburg of $26 last Saturday evening. Johnson returned home Sunday evening with his prisoner, who went without requisition papers. Early protests his innocence.

Representative William R. Sprague returned to Columbus Monday morning.

John, better known as "Dino" Schwartz, has given up his position at the Linn undertaking establishment to take employment at the Portsmouth Steel plant.

Adam Brant, of Bloom Furnace, has been ill for several days with rheumatism.

The young children of Ernest Pick, of Carey's Run, who have been very ill with influenza and pneumonia, were reported improving Monday.

Trio Sets Freedom
Upon the recommendation of Sheriff Smith, the commissioners ordered the release from the county jail of James Turner, fined $25 and costs December 9th by Squire Hyron for assault and battery; Ben Stevens, fined in the same court on December 8th for selling mortgaged furniture; and Harry Lazier, fined by Squire McManes of New Boston on December 30, for assault and battery. None of the trio are able to pay their fines.

Awarded Pensions
James Smith of this city and Arch Hinkle of the West Side were awarded hind pensions by the commissioners Monday, the former $20 and the latter $15 every three months.

Must Sell Property
Unless Arthur Williams, a local pharmacist, sells his property on Eighth street within ten days, it will be sold under order of the court. One-half of the property was given to his divorced wife, Mae Williams, by the court at the hearing some time ago, with an order that it be sold in thirty days. It is valued at $1800. Judge Thomas announced his decision Monday afternoon upon a motion of the wife's attorneys, Milner, Miller and Searl.

WHAT IS A HERO?

"What is a hero?" was discussed and a satisfactory answer decided upon at the meeting of the Every Man's Bible class of the Fourth Street Methodist church, Sunday. The lesson was about Gideon, the deliverer of Israel, and the discussion soon drifted to what really constituted a hero. The class decided that a real hero was a person who sacrificed all for the welfare of others, without any selfish motive, as the Savior did.

The talks were all interesting and a profitable time was had by all present. A gratifying fact was the recording of a gain of eight in attendance over the corresponding Sunday of last year, marking another step toward the hundred mark. There were 35 present yesterday.

An invitation is extended to all to be on hand next Sunday.

FINE FLAGS HERE

Two unusually fine U. S. flags purchased by the Scioto County Federation of Catholic Societies arrived Monday and are at the Central Hardware Company's store for safekeeping.

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 55. Residence A-690.

Dear Dolly—Do you think a young man has any intention of marrying a girl if he goes with her steady for six months? A man of 25 has been calling on me that long and hasn't even hinted about getting married. Do you think he cares anything for me?

CHARLOTTE.

Very likely he is merely a friend. It is always safe for a girl to act on that supposition until she has good grounds for believing something more serious is intended.

Dear Dolly—I want you to do your very best for me now. I am going to ask you a question. I am a young man 21 years old, and used to go with a sweet little girl in this town two years ago and we quit, but it was all my fault. I have not talked to her since, but see her three and four times a week. I think about her all the time and know I owe her an apology, but I haven't got the courage to do so. If I could only apologize to her I believe I could forget her. She has been married now for a year. Do you think it would be all right for me to stop her some time and apologize, for I can't never feel right until I do. She always speaks to me.

WEST END LAD.

Apologize by all means if it will do you any good and then forget all about the girl. You

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid norel; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid norel at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Miss Dolly Wise—Kindly inform me how many acres in Tracy Park, Ninth and Chillicothe streets, and also how many acres in the Childrens' Home grounds. I remain your earnest student.

A TIMES READER.

Tracy Park contains 3.29 acres and the Childrens' Home 8.23 acres.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me how to dye a piece of wool goods a darker shade? MRS. A. D.

Wool goods is very easy to dye. If you get a package of any of the standard dyes and carefully follow the directions on the envelope you cannot fail. Ask for wool dye.

Miss Dolly—If you had met the Gypsy fortune teller that Mayme and I did and they would tell you things about yourself that you had forgotten and that you knew had happened, and then told you something that you thought was impossible to happen, and then the very same things came true later that she told now, what would you think? CHARLIE.

She wouldn't tell me those things, 'cause I wouldn't go to a fortune teller. So there, Charlie.

Dear Dolly—Would like to know the meaning of R. S. V. P. CHESTER.

R. S. V. P. are the first letters of some Latin words which mean in English, please answer, and invitations bearing these letters should be answered with the least possible delay.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print in your column the name of the firm that put Selby's whistle up at the factory? Is the firm still in business? Please give address of the firm? A READER.

Call up the factory office and they will give you the desired information, maybe.

Dear Dolly—I would like to have a recipe for chocolate peppermints. A READER.

Chocolate Peppermints—Three cups granulated sugar, one cup hot water, a teaspoon cream tartar; boil until it boils. Take from fire and add four drops of peppermint. Beat as long as possible.

ble, drop on glazed paper and when cool melt four ounces of chocolate and drop patties into this. Set on oiled paper to harden.

Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me how to prepare grape fruit? IGNORANT.

Grape fruit is usually cut in half crosswise; then the hard, white pithy center is carefully removed, and the lobes gently separated from the outer rind, still retaining place and shape. The fruit is eaten with an orange spoon, with or without sugar, as taste may dictate. Sometimes the fruit thus prepared is slightly sugared, a little wine is poured into it, and a marachino cherry laid upon the surface. It is served as an "appetizer" preceding a luncheon or dinner thus prepared.

Dear Dolly—We would like for you to answer a few questions for us. What will be the leading colors this spring and summer? Will the tunic skirts be worn any at all? Will the hats be small or large, and how should young girls of eighteen comb their hair? Thinking you in advance.

CHUMS.

All the leading colors will be worn. Fancy tunic skirts will be good this spring. The modified skirt, as well as the gored skirt, is looked on with favor. Pleats are being asked for, but only in novel form. The skirt with pleats at the sides is considered very smart. Other types have pleated backs and plain fronts, or pleated panels both front and back. Yokes of all kinds are being used. Pockets are cleverly employed and a few skirts are finished with belts or girdles of self material. The width of the skirt varies from 2 1/2 to 3 yards. In the medium and popular grades the 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 yard measurements are preferred to the extreme styles. According to the Dry Goods Economist, the color situation as regards spring millinery is unusually interesting in its range and novelty. The popular sand shades continue the craze, but battle-ship gray, Georgette navy (a dark corbeau), Rebeaux pink (a black, and black and white are included in the running. Armory blue also deserves mention. White shapes, especially in faille silk, velvet and suede, are among the leaders of the moment. The color ideas in trimmings are equally striking. Huge buttons in Scotch plaids and in new stripe effects are a feature, as are also pyroxylin ornaments in the various national color combinations. These fancy ornaments are smartest when applied to hats that are black or white or sumner in color. Pump your hair or part on side and roll on the back of your head in one or two coils.

Dear Miss Wise—If you have a recipe for some kind of a dark cake please put it in the paper. HOUSEWIFE.

Two ounces chocolate, one cup sugar, one-half cup milk, one-quarter cup butter, three eggs, one teaspoon baking powder, two cups flour. Melt chocolate and add to butter and sugar creamed, add yolks, beat well; add whites last. A good pastry flour is made by using one-third cornstarch and two-thirds flour.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl fourteen years old and am in the eighth grade. I am five feet, four inches tall and weigh 114 pounds. How long should I wear my dresses and should I wear a corset? How is my writing? SCHOOL GIRL.

Wear your dresses about to your elbow top. You can wear a corset or go without one. Just suit yourself about that. Don't lace, though.

Harry C.—If you will send me your address I will be glad to explain the three questions you asked fully. It would take up too much space in this column. Then too, it might start a debate or discussion and that is not the purpose of this department.

Dear Dolly—Please state in your column why "stags" are not allowed at the "Club" dances. I know several prominent young men who were refused admittance to these dances recently because they were not accompanied by a young lady.

ONE OF THE STAGS.

One of the rules of those giving the dances is not to allow any "stags" and that in itself ought to be sufficient reason. Another reason is that young men, who are too selfish, or too "short" to take a young lady ought not to be allowed to any dance hall—unless of course they expect to just look on or dance by themselves. Another reason is that men who do take young ladies strenuously object to outsiders coming in and dancing with their friend while they have to "sit out." It isn't fair, anyway you look at it, and let us hasten the day when there won't be any stags.

Vapor Treatments for Cold Troubles

Are now used in all hospitals. The vapors carry the medication to the lungs and air passages without disturbing the stomach. When Vicks' Vapo-Oil, Vapo-Cream and Vapo-Salve is applied over the throat and chest, these vapors—of Menthol, Thymol, Eucalyptol, Camphor, and Pine Tar—are released by the heat of the body. Usually the worst colds go in one night—croup in fifteen minutes. Vicks' is fine for head colds, catarrhs, and croup, and is absolutely harmless. Three sizes—from 25c up.

DEAD COMEDIAN WELL KNOWN IN THIS CITY

Many Portsmouth people read with regret the telegram in Saturday's papers telling of the tragic death of Gus Williams, famed German comedian, who died in a New York hospital as the result of a self-inflicted gunshot wound. He shot himself in the New York Central sub-station at Yonkers and died later in a hospital. Mr. Williams was 72 years old and had been in ill health for some years and to this his act ascribed as he was in good financial circumstances. He was a civil war veteran and began his stage career at Tony Pastor's in 1866. He there established his German stage comedian which subsequently became a stage institution.

In the later 80's and 90's Gus Williams was at the head of his own road company and he was almost an annual visitor in Portsmouth where he was very popular with the stage going public. One year in the early 90's when Mr. Williams played an engagement at the old Grand Opera House at Sixth and Court streets, then under the management of H. S. Grimes, he and his company were entertained after the show by Portsmouth lodge of Elks and six members of the company were initiated into the order under a special dispensation. A great banquet followed the initiation, with speeches and jokes galore and a most delightful evening was spent. At the close of the banquet Mr. Williams made an address in which he expressed the thanks of himself and his company for the splendid entertainment and courtesies extended. He stated that he had a fine Elk head which he had secured himself while on a hunting trip and which he had been reserving for some special purpose and it was his pleasure to announce that he intended to send it to the Portsmouth lodge as an adornment for their lodge room. A short time afterwards the Elk head came, being shipped from Pueblo, Colorado. It has hung in the Elk lodge room ever since, a small silver plate at the base with Mr. Williams' name dedicating it to Portsmouth lodge.

Bold Getaway Is Made By Prisoner

Floyd Smith, who was arrested a few weeks ago for alleged chicken stealing and later committed to the county jail for vagrancy, made a bold getaway from C. Brown, a parole officer of the Mansfield Reformatory, near the N. & W. depot Monday morning.

Brown was taking Smith back to Mansfield for violation of parole, he being under suspended sentence for alleged robbing the store of Pawnbroker James Manning, of Chillicothe street. Officer Joe Bonzo accompanied Mr. Brown to the Smith home on Ninth street, just above Waller, to get the young man. He was made to walk between them. Although he had a pair of handcuffs, Brown did not place them on his prisoner. When they approached the Tenth street crossing, Bonzo was slightly in the lead. Smith suddenly drew back and gave the parole officer a violent push, and himself swung aboard the Williamson express train, just as it got under way. Brown fired a pistol shot into the air to halt Smith, but he continued rushing from coach to coach until he reached the baggage car, when he alighted and made good his escape. The conductor seeing Bonzo on the run, had slowed down the train, but to no avail. Brown caught the train for Columbus, leaving word for the police to round up Smith and declaring he would return for him when they did.

Blood Sufferers Want to Know

The Light is Turned on to a Subject of Darkness.

The more fact that S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, drives out disease is a world's story, a tale of concentration where men get together. They wonder why, simply because most remedies are applied and put before them as "discoveries." The fact is that we pay too much attention to possibilities and not enough to real, human accomplishment. S. S. S. is a remedy of our fathers. It has a history that is older than any man's mind because it has done the work, driven out deep seated disease, relieved hope, put the O. K. on appearance and clamped down tight any hint of germ to get the upper hand. Any sore spot on the skin is an immediate demand for S. S. S. since the first principle of this famous remedy is to strike out for places of trouble. This is a physiological fact and S. S. S. is true to the workings of our body.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. today at any drugstore and begin blood health. It will master any blood disease and do it in a way so simple that he can do it. And if you would like definite advice write The S. S. S. Co., 50 South High, Atlanta, Ga. Their medical department is where most people first seek advice that puts them on the straight road.

May Pull Off Trade

There is talk of a big trade between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. Some of the old time stars of both teams are to be involved. "It is said. The trade clouds in a baseball way are hanging low these days.

JACK A. JOHNSON MAY BE BARRED FROM MEXICO; "TOO MUCH" CRIES LIL ARTHA

Reports from Mexico declare that efforts may be made to detain Johnson when he seeks to enter that country. Carranza is determined to prevent the big smoke's entry if he possibly can. Johnson is now in South America and plans to travel northward and cross the Mexican border. If he is restrained the humiliation will no doubt cut him deeply. Further developments are eagerly awaited.

Unless Jack Johnson can display the passports of a recognized American citizen his entrance into Mexico from South America may be deterred. Carranza, the distinguished Mexican statesman, has declared his determination to delay the big smoke when he endeavors to travel to Juarez, the proposed scene of his fight with Jess Willard.

That would be a humiliation to Johnson. It is well known that America, the scene of his youth and childhood, has forsaken him and to have Mexico treat him with the same repulse should cause him some annoyance.

Other countries may follow suit. In which case Johnson may at last be forced to buy a little boat and float about on uncharted waters. Though he may find some comfort in the reflection that other great men, too, at the close of illustrious careers, have been put in exile. He may consider himself the Napoleon of fistiana. In the meantime it is to be seen what Carranza will be able to do. Many hope that just this once he will allow Johnson's entrance as the rumor prevails that Willard may drop his crown.

Napoleon's Return

The shift of Napoleon Lajole from Cleveland back to Philadelphia recalls the stirring episodes of 1901 and the big financial shift which has favored the player of late years.

Lajole, then a 300 hitter, was getting $2,000 a year. He offered to stick for $3,000 and the Philly owners came near choking to death when he named this price.

Cum gratia, then building the Athletics, met the figures, but when the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania held the reserve clause legal and barred him from playing in that state Charlie Somers, of Cleveland, the greatest man in baseball, offered the big Frenchman a four-year contract at $5,000 a year. Lajole got the money whether or not he played the game. This was the first of the big salaries for players.

DECISION TO COME WEDNESDAY

The big mess into which the Federal League has forced the grand old national game will be settled up this week in Chicago and the outcome will be watched with keen interest by the millions throughout the country. The suit of the Feds to dissolve the National Commission and thus disrupt the government of the sport—a government which has been a complete success and which is absolutely essential to the interests of all concerned in the game—will be heard on Wednesday in the United States Court before Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the judge who fined the Standard Oil company $29,000,000 not so many years ago. There will be no postponement of the hearing.

If the forces of organized ball can prevent it, as the members of the commission and all the magnates are very anxious to have the decision made and the case settled as soon as possible so that the present tough situation may be cleared up.

The committee will submit the resolutions next Sunday morning.

He has been manager of the local office for the past nine years. The company has not accepted his resignation and it is thought will try to induce him to reconsider his move as he is one of the most faithful and efficient young men in the Postal service.

Force Of Habit

It may be that Conkle has figured out the force of habit will operate in Sam Lajole's behalf when the French veteran returns to the Mackinnon camp fire.

When Larry left the Mackinnon in 1901 he left with a batting average of .322, his highest mark—and a higher mark than any man now in baseball ever set. In addition to which he scored 115 runs in 151 games only two runs short of Cobb's 117 runs record established in 116 games through 1911.

MAY LEGALIZE BOXING

A strong effort will be made to have boxing legalized at the present session of the Ohio Legislature. Wagner has been offered as high as $1,500 a week to appear in vaudeville. No chance. On one occasion a tobacco house began collecting the signatures of prominent ball players which permitted the use of their photographs in certain cigarette packages. All agreed except Wagner. A friend of the Dutchman's in Pittsburgh was offered $50 to get his consent. He told Wagner about it. "I'll give you a check for fifty to square the account," said Wagner, "but I don't believe in smoking cigarettes." The signature was never obtained.

Fighters Hold Stage In The Police Court

The case of Wallace Combs and Sam Yates, two well known East End young men, for fighting at the Flood & Blake corner late Saturday night, was continued by the mayor until Tuesday morning.

Combs was on hands ready for trial, but Yates was unable to appear, and while there were a number of witnesses present the mayor felt it only justice to the other man to defer the hearing until he could be present.

Combs, who is an N. & W. engineer, and Yates, who is an expert pool player, had always been fast friends, but they had a disagreement while down town Saturday evening. They patched up matters, and shaking hands separated, each going his way. According to Combs, he was later approaching the corner of Gallia and Lawson streets when suddenly confronted by Yates, who demanded of him whether or not he liked the way he had treated him earlier in the evening. He said when he told him he was displeased with his manner, Yates struck him. He struck back, knocking Yates to the ground. Yates' eyes were badly discolored in the fight.

The case of Harry Chucules, for alleged assaulting a newsboy, Charles Barr, was also continued again until Saturday by agreement of Attorneys W. R. Sprague and William J. Meyer.

John Austin, colored, was as positive in his claim that Henry Humbergar, a white cripple, had received his practice of shouting at his wife and otherwise getting into quarrels with her, as Humbergar was certain it was all a mistake. He disclaimed even knowing Austin's wife, but admitted that Austin had similarly accused him about three years ago. The mayor wanted further light on the case and continued it until Tuesday, with orders to both to bring in their witnesses.

Laurel Polly was fined $5 for alleged assaulting Lucy Cox. The trouble grew out of Polly having frozen dirt clods at a manged dog belonging to the woman.

William Hubbard, who is said to have made an attempt to rob a Limerick, Ky., farmer on the public landing, was fined $10.

Leo Good, Charles Haley, Herb Smith and Bill Glascoe pleaded guilty to stealing coal from the N. & W. railway, while Rice Burris, Will Donley, Ben Dabney and others rounded up by police and detectives Saturday night and Sunday, pleaded not guilty and all of the cases were continued until Tuesday morning to give Detective Ellsworth ample time in which to summon witnesses.

Herbert Andrews, of Cincinnati, who was arrested for begging on the streets, was ordered to leave town.

Fixing Appropriations

The various city department heads are busy outlining appropriations they anticipate needing for carrying on their respective departments during the first six months of the year. The appropriations will be taken up by city council at a meeting Wednesday evening.

DETECTIVE SWOOPS UPON GANG, MANY ARRESTS MADE

The police and Detective W. A. Ellsworth made another wholesale raid on alleged coal thieves Saturday and Sunday nights.

Among those who were caught in the drag net were Harry Johnson, "Pop" Smith, Ed Johnson, Jake Haley, Bill Glascoe, Leo Good, McKinley Hurd, Frank Jenkins, Richard Burns, Henry Hurd, Hubert Andrews. All were ordered to report in police court Monday. The name of Ed, better known as "Dooty" Johnson, also appeared on the list but was hastily omitted when discovered it was a mistake. Johnson had just been released from the county jail Sunday, having served ten days for stealing coal from the N. & W.

Detective Ellsworth has decided to remain in Portsmouth until he has put an end to the bold operations of coal thieves in the North End. He was considerably disappointed over his failure to capture John, better known as "Shorty" Betts. It was Betts, who it is said, to have hired others to help him steal coal. He abandoned his push cart and made good his escape. It was learned afterward he crossed into Kentucky after having told his wife to meet him at the C. & O. depot there. He had told her he felt sure of a workhouse sentence and thought it best to go while the going was good.

COMPLAINS OF SHALE

The mayor in a letter to the Portsmouth Paving Brick company calls attention to the danger to travel caused by slippery shale scattered along the paved part of Gallia pike. The shale highway is narrow without curb or sidewalks and there is great danger at the intersecting streets particularly to automobiles during the wet weather. Besides the pike is always congested and the mayor calls upon the company to have its employees eliminate the objections referred to.

Miss Lola Gifford has returned to her work in Attorneys Blair and Kimble's office after a few days' illness with the grip.

Addition Dedicated

That the country school can still be the center of the community was demonstrated last Friday at District No. 2, Marion township, the occasion being the dedication of the addition to the building, and the raising of the flag over it.

Shortly before the noon hour the parents came in, bringing well filled baskets and a bounteous community dinner was soon served to all.

Then the Dr. O. U. A. M. of Stockdale took charge of the ceremonies. Amid salutes and cheers the flag was raised over the building, and the new bell, ringing for the first time, pealed forth the blessings of freedom just as cheerfully as did that famous old bell at Philadelphia in 1776.

All joined in singing "America," after which the invocation was offered by the Rev. Mr. Green of Waverly. In the address of welcome, the teacher, Mr. Jesse Smith, explained the work of the school in training the children for our present life, and expressed his appreciation for the interest shown by the patrons. A very able address was given by the Rev. Mr. Green, and it was followed by responses from all present.

The ceremonies were closed by the song "The Little Red School House" and by the benediction by the minister.

Frank B. Kehoe Was Appointed

The mayor on Monday announced the appointment of Frank B. Kehoe, of the Portsmouth Banking company, as a member of the board of sinking fund trustees to succeed the late George M. Appel.

The mayor, in acquainting city council with his selection, writes as follows: "Realizing that it will be a difficult matter to find a man so well fitted for the position as was the late member, I believe in Mr. Kehoe you will have a man that will follow in his foot-steps and prove a very able member of the board. I therefore will appreciate

"Cesspool Of Filth And Rot" Is Sunday's Tribute To Cincinnati

The Times Star says: "I am going to give you the worst Sabbath-breaking cities of this country in their order," said Sunday, in his sermon on the Ten Commandments, at the Philadelphia tabernacle. "San Francisco comes first; then Cincinnati, a perfect cesspool of filth and rot; then New Orleans and St. Louis. They are in the order of their villainous and Sabbath-breaking proclivities that damn and rot the country today."

This is the statement credited to Evangelist "Billy" Sunday. He is alleged to have made the remark during his revival campaign in Philadelphia Friday.

Cincinnati ministers are planning to bring him here in 1916. The Rev. John Herget is chairman of the Cincinnati Sunday Revival committee, which is trying to see if it is a feasible project.

The Rev. Dr. Herget was greatly interested in Sunday's reported comment. Dr. Herget said Saturday: "I suppose that Sunday is approximately correct—he has had more opportunity of studying these cities than I have. But I would have placed New Orleans before Cincinnati, in the matter of Sabbath breaking," said Dr. Herget. "My classification would have been San Francisco, first; New Orleans, second and Cincinnati, third."

The terms used by the evangelist in condemning Cincinnati do not change Dr. Herget's view of the good that could be accomplished by Sunday, should the committee succeed in bringing him here. "It is this way," said the Cincinnati minister. "What Sunday says, taken from the context of his sermon and printed, gives a very different impression from that gained by hearing him preach. I have studied this phase of the matter. I went to Columbus, also to South Bend, to hear him, and found nothing that gave the impression which we gain from the published excerpts. I think that there is everything in the setting of his talks. Apart from the background, which he constructs, they lack the force and constructive power which are his special gift."

THEATRICAL

At The Sun Theatre
The Barrett Players offer for the first half "The White Sister." This is the same play in which Viola Allen scored such a notable success and was afterwards used as a starring vehicle for Catharine Countess. The scenes are in Sunny Italy and the story is that of a young captain who leaves the girl he loves in fact his promised wife to go to Africa and fight for his country. The young woman waits patiently for his return when one day there comes the sad news that his entire company was annihilated. Her grief was almost beyond control, until at last she finds peace and rest as a sister in a convent. So well does she love her religion and her duties that she willingly becomes a "White Sister" which excludes her from marriage and most of the worldly things, and is a vow that can be annulled only by the Pope.

Here we find her happy and contented, giving her life to nursing the sick, living only for the time when she shall have saved her work on earth, that she may meet her lover in eternity.

In fact she has just decided to go to Ravenna and nurse the Pope.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cut them out in the form of urine. But in many instances, the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here, you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH GET SPLENDID START

A crowd that tested the seating capacity of the First Christian church assembled Sunday evening and were treated not only to a splendid song service, but one of the most eloquent sermons ever delivered from a local pulpit, the minister, Rev. Clayton S. Brooks, being in elegant form and voice.

That the two weeks revival which was inaugurated Sunday, will be a success was couched last night by the interest shown. In fact, Sunday was a continuous round of successes for the church and every member is nightly enthused over the prospects.

The Bible school showed an attendance of 864, and this was enough to put everybody in good humor and in the proper spirit for a big day's work. Indeed it just seemed like every member was willing that he be placed in the harness and allowed to pull, and the amount of work accomplished during the day conclusively demonstrated that no load was too heavy to pull.

STUDY AND EXERCISE

Study does not hurt a child unless the study time is taken from time that should be spent in out-of-door exercise. Overstudy and lack of exercise make thin, bloodless children. It is a combination that provokes St. Vitus' dance. If your child is thin and pale, listless, inattentive, has a feeble appetite and is unable to stand still or sit still, you must remember that health is even more important than education.

See to it at once that the patient does not overstudy, gets at least two hours out-of-door exercise every day, sleeps ten hours out of every twenty-four, and takes a non-alcoholic tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills until the color returns to cheeks and lips and the appetite becomes normal.

pledges, an increase of more than 33.33 per cent. And all reports are not in. It is believed that fully 600 members will pledge. The sum that will be secured will, it is believed, insure more than enough for the running expenses. All secured above this amount will be applied to the church debt, which is being gradually reduced, and which, it is thought, will be entirely wiped out within the next two or three years. The men were warmly congratulated by Rev. Brooks over the splendid work they had done. He stated it was the biggest day's work he had ever seen done in any single congregation.

The song service which was in charge of Prof. Theo. Fitz, was spirited and inspiring. Prof. Fitz assembled a choir of about 75 voices and the way he forced them to sing showed conclusively that he was a master singer, one whose heart is in his work. As a soloist Prof. Fitz is one of the best ever heard in this city and the church is to be congratulated upon having secured his services. The day before leaving New York City for the Peerless City, Prof. Fitz was elected as professor of music in one of New York's big conservatories at a most handsome salary, a testimonial to his worth as an instructor.

In his sermon last night, Minister Brooks used the "home" as the basis of his remarks. He brought forth many new and original thoughts and those who heard him declare it was the best effort of his ministry at the local church, and he was warmly congratulated at the close. Rev. Brooks did not extend the gospel invitation and will not during the entire week, which would indicate his remarks for the present will be directed toward the membership. Last night the fathers and mothers went home with something to think about for weeks to come.

Record Crowd At Trinity Church

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a service in Trinity M. E. church was present Sunday evening to hear the pastor, Rev. T. Lloyd Strecker, deliver the second of a special series of Sunday night meetings. The church proper, Sunday school room and balcony were filled to overflowing and chairs were placed in the aisles to accommodate all who wanted to hear.

Rev. Strecker's subject was "Personal Liberty," a theme which he developed along different lines than some speakers who essay to speak on that subject. Special music featured the service, including selections by the Pilgrim Singers and the chorus choir, and a solo by Mrs. John Davis.

EMIGRATION FROM PANAMA INCREASES

Panama, Jan. 15. The total emigration from the Isthmus through the terminal ports of Balboa and Colon since July, 1913, has been 26,901. This figure does not represent a corresponding reduction in the Canal force. For in June, 1913, there were 42,292 employees on the rolls, while on November 25, 1914, there were 26,957, a difference of 15,335. It may be assumed, therefore, that in addition to the 16,200 Canal laborers who have returned to their homes, over 4,000 fathers have left also.

PRIESTS PAY TRIBUTE TO GEORGE M. APPEL

In commenting upon the death of Mr. Geo. Appel, Rev. J. F. McGuirk, pastor of Holy Redeemer church, before the regular sermon Sunday morning paid a worthy tribute to the memory of the deceased by recommending the splendid example of this good man to the emulation of the young men of his parish.

Last Friday morning the citizens of this commonwealth irrespective of nationality, religion or party, laid to rest one of its best citizens who was universally beloved and esteemed for his noble qualities of head and heart.

When his last mortal remains were committed to mother earth it may be reverently asked is this the sequel of life and death? No indeed. He bequeathed to this community a rich legacy of a splendid example of truthfulness, honesty, sobriety and industry worthy the emulation of every citizen especially the young men of this city who hope to attain an honorable, useful and successful business career.

All men are led by ideals rather than ideas. Example is more powerful than eloquent preachments to win the admiration and appreciation of young men who are ambitious to gain the rich rewards of honorable manhood.

Every day he proved to friend and stranger that his word was as good as his bond. Every day he adhered unflinchingly to the policy of honesty in all dealings with his fellowmen. Every day he wore upon his manly breast the white flower of a blameless life. Every day he was the architect of his own fortune which he finally realized by dint of well directed energy and industry which he never shirked from the day he began to earn a livelihood until the very day of his sad and sudden death.

He was the type of an American citizen who unselfishly gave himself, time, talent, counsel and money to creating a broad mind and progressive and patriotic public spirit which aimed to unite all citizens of the county into a solidarity of friendship and business for the mutual benefit of citizen and farmer socially and financially, for the prosperity of the citizen and the prosperity of the citizen is the prosperity of the farmer.

pastor of Holy Redeemer church to recommend to the young men of this parish an earnest, daily emulation of the splendid example set them by this good man. Cherish and imitate as far as possible his noble character, blameless life, modest but generous giving to poor suffering mankind, if you hope to attain an honorable useful and successful business career, then I can assure you, your worthy persistent efforts will be crowned with more or less untimely success.

Rev. Father T. Goebel, pastor of St. Mary's church, also paid a warm tribute to the memory of Mr. Appel. He said it was not his pleasure to know him personally but judging from newspaper accounts and what he had heard of him he was a man who deserved all of the praise that had been bestowed upon him, commended him for his many great deeds of charity which he said would forever live after him and said the good, clean life he led and the examples he had set in the community were well followed by Catholics and non-Catholics.

Great Revival Will Continue This Week

One of the largest revivals ever held in the city of Portsmouth for many years is now in progress at the Allen Chapel A. M. E. church, Seventh street, which is being conducted by the pastor, John Irvin, who was transferred from fronton, O., to this church, in this city, during the last year's conference, who succeeded the Rev. Mr. Newman, who went from here to Cambridge, O.

The revival started up on New Year's night and the first week was the week of prayer and during last week the meetings have been very well attended by a large congregation and the pastor, for the Rev. Mr. Irvin is conducting a strong, powerful meeting.

At the services yesterday morning the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Irvin preached an eloquent sermon, and during the services the choir rendered several selections.

At the evening services the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society with Mrs. Anderson as president.

The choir sang beautiful selections.

BETTER EYESIGHT

Many people still speak of near-sightedness, far-sightedness, astigmatism, etc., as though they were some form of eye disease, but they are no more a disease than are red hair and freckles.

These eye conditions are caused by the faulty shape or false position of the eyeball, which condition renders vision unsatisfactory and painful.

It is our profession to relieve such conditions, and this relief is brought about by the correct application of perfectly ground lenses, mounted in a suitable frame by our skillful fitters.

TAKE LIVING BODIES FROM RUINS

REMARKABLE RESCUES MADE IN QUAKE ZONE

Avezzano, via Rome, Jan. 18.—More than two thousand soldiers under command of Lieut. General Marini are at work on the ruins of Avezzano which may be described as a wilderness, extending for several square miles. Signor Olufelli, minister of public works, estimates the number of dead in the Avezzano district at 20,000 and 10,000 injured.

So altogether ruined is the city that it is difficult for the inhabitants to recognize streets, much less individual houses.

Avezzano was important as a manufacturing and trade center. The sugar works cost $1,250,000. Some of the machinery may still be of value. Other mills less important represented a property value of $3,000,000.

Prince Torlonia, one of the greatest land proprietors in Italy, is the heaviest loser financially, but he declined to consider that at this time. When seen by the correspondent of the Associated Press he had been up all night, working in the wreckage. The great Roman prince looked rather like a coal heaver as he had actually been laboring physically in the work of rescue.

Among the titled women who have come here to aid the injured is the Marchesa di Sostegno, of Florence. She is working as a nurse in one of the several military hospitals erected in the park near the new railroad station.

Remarkable Rescues
Are Brought To Light

Incidents of the remarkable rescues that were made are becoming known. One is told of a lieutenant of engineers, Corri Evill by name, who came here and located the residence of his mother. He worked for some time alone, pulling away stones, but presently he was assisted by soldiers. After seven hours of the hardest kind of labor he found his mother alive and not very badly injured. She had been protected by an unbroken piece of wall falling over a corner of the room in which she was sleeping.

Another rescue of the kind, made by women, is also reported. The mother, it seems, had escaped and believed that her daughter must be alive under the fragments of their home. She organized a party of women and herself stimulated them to continue what seemed a hopeless excavation in nothing but a heap of irregular pieces of limestone.

The mother on Sunday heard a voice just beneath where the women were working and they finally reached the young woman who was roofed in and protected by two parts of walls forming an angle. One foot was held under a black of stone, but otherwise the young woman was unhurt. She had been without food or drink for four days and had been nearly suffocated by the dust of the pulverized mortar which had sifted down through crevices while the women were trying to reach her.

U. S. ATTORNEY DIES

Los Gatos, Cal., Jan. 18.—William Niclaus Landers, United States attorney at Porto Rico, died at his home here yesterday from a tropical disease contracted in Porto Rico a year ago. Landers came to California with his wife and daughter three weeks ago in the hope that the change in climate would benefit his health.

Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 18.—The First National Bank of Uniontown failed to open its doors this morning at nine o'clock and waiting customers were told that the board of directors was in session and an announcement would soon be made.

PRESIDENT A GRAND-PA

Washington, Jan. 18.—President Wilson today was a proud grandfather. A fine, seven-and-a-half pound boy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, has made its appearance at the White House. It was the President's first grandchild and he was overjoyed because it was a boy, having had no boys of his own.

The baby arrived at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, although formal announcement of the fact was not made until 6 o'clock. The youngster made known his advent into the world by a series of lusty cries.

Both mother and baby were reported to be doing well. Congratulations over the birth of the baby, the eleventh to have been born at the White House, continue to pour into the White House today. It was believed that the baby would be named for his grandfather.

PREPARE TO EXTRADITE THAW

New York, Jan. 18.—The first move to bring Harry K. Thaw back to this state on extradition papers, as directed by the United States supreme court, will be taken tomorrow, when William T. Jerome will apply to the court for a certified copy of the decision directing that Thaw be delivered to the New York authorities by New Hampshire immediately after receiving the order, according to announcement today. Mr. Jerome and Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, will go to Manchester to take Thaw into custody.

PAYS $144,000 INCOME TAX

San Francisco, Calif., Jan. 18.—An income tax of $144,000, said to have been one of the largest paid by the government, was turned in by T. A. Harkness, early associate of John D. Rockefeller, who died yesterday at the ranch of his son-in-law, Dr. E. King Macomber, near Hollister, Calif. He was in California when the income tax was instituted and the statement he filed showed the value of his holdings to be between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000.

False Alarm Of Italian Invasion

Genoa, (via Paris) Jan. 18.—False alarm of an Italian invasion was spread in Trentino by the mistake of a telephone girl, says a Venice dispatch to the newspaper Secolo XIX. She reported that Italian troops were marching towards Sappada, one of the easiest points for invasion. The authorities never questioned the truth of the report. All night long roads were blown up and troops were rushed towards Sappada. In the morning all was ready for the invaders but there was no sign of them. The telephone girl is being prosecuted.

Plan New Campaign For Woman Suffrage

Washington, Jan. 18.—Declaring that the vote in the House yesterday on the Shafroth-Palmer resolution for a constitutional amendment to enfranchise women had demonstrated conclusively that the next important step in the suffrage movement must come through the states, Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, announced today that the committee's activities for the remainder of the session of congress would be devoted to such efforts as would advance the cause at the various stages. A campaign will be immediately begun for the passage of the Shafroth-Palmer resolution in the sixty-fourth congress. This resolution which was introduced in both houses at the last session, provides for a referendum in the various states at any time upon the demand of eight per cent of the voters.

EUROPEAN EDITORS HAVE THEIR TROUBLES

Paris, Jan. 18.—As the war in Europe progresses, the difficulties that beset newspaper publishers in France, particularly in Paris, have greatly increased. With the outbreak of the war many newspapermen went to the front, and their places had to be filled. Then provision had to be made for paper, in event the city should be besieged. The various journals reduced their circulation to the fewest number possible, and in their desire to economize, cut down their pages from six to eight sheets, and in some cases as low as two pages. Advertising dwindled down to nothing, and the proceeds from subscription and sales were all that remained. Sacrifices were made on every hand, and censorship practiced wherever possible. From the editor-in-chief to office boy, salary reductions from 10 to 50, or even 60 per cent were made, and these were accepted without a murmur. The entire system of correspondence from the provinces was disrupted by the call to arms, and consequently incoming news service was most unsatisfactory.

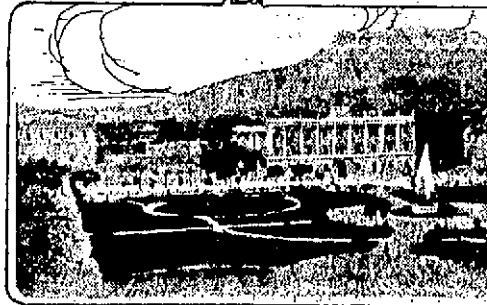

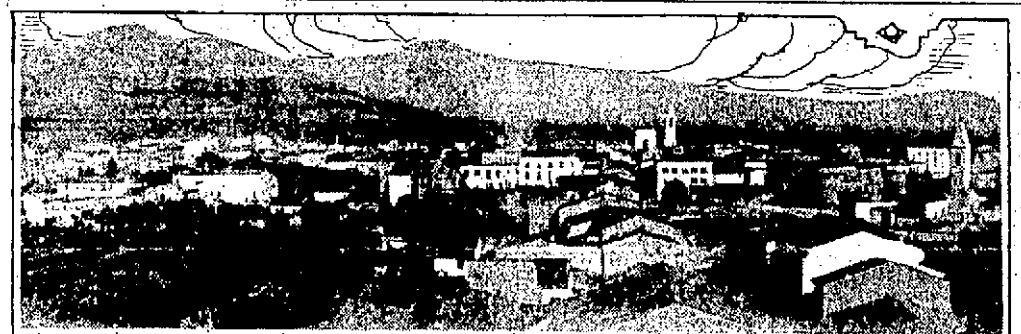

But soon these unfavorable conditions were overcome, and in their place arose the task of competing with a stringent censorship. Today the censorship in France is fully as rigid as that in England. In the beginning military alone, the censorship has now become administrative as well. A double censorship exists, one in Paris and the other in Bordeaux. The newspapers complain that the censorship concerns itself with everything, including many things that are none of its business, and also allege that it is arbitrary and capricious. A certain news story might receive the notification of the censorship in Paris, while Bordeaux would condemn the same story, and vice versa. Under these conditions this Parisian newspaper editor has been at a loss to know what he can do or what he can expect.

Papers have to go to press an hour and a half earlier than usual, in order to send three copies of each sheet to the censor's office. Then they have to wait until each sheet is examined and permission telephoned to use it, or not to use certain indicated portions. Only after every sheet has thus passed can the paper go to press. If the regulations of the censorship are ignored, all copies are confiscated and publication suspended, a very severe punishment. Protest against these conditions is constantly being made, and it is known in Paris that Great Britain has found it expedient to intervene in this matter.

The French newspapermen admit that the movement of troops obviously should not be published for patriotic reasons but they find it most difficult to understand why the glorious deeds of their armies and the men composing them should not be recorded for the perusal of not only the French public, but for the people of non-belligerent countries as well.

VIEWS OF INTERIOR ITALIAN TOWN WHERE EARTHQUAKE TOOK BIGGEST TOLL

UNEMPLOYED OF CHICAGO IN RIOT; WOMEN ARRESTED

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Twenty-one persons, six of whom are women, arrested yesterday in the streets in front of the Hull House, a social settlement, were to appear in court today, to answer charges of inciting a riot.

Mrs. Lucy Parsons, widow of the anarchist hanged for murder after the Haymarket riots several years ago, was among those arrested. The riot was the result of an attempt of about 1,500 unemployed men and women to parade. Some of the marchers carried black banners on which, in large white letters, was the word "Hunger." Police demanded that the marchers halt as no permit had been issued for them to parade. Fighting started instantly. Police, with revolvers and clubs drawn rushed through the crowd, felling all within their reach. Women, marchers grabbed the policemen by the legs and throw them to the street, biting and scratching at their faces with finger nails. A number of shots were fired by the police in their attempt to drive back the crowd.

The police fought their way into the crowd, arrested 21 and with difficulty looked them up in police stations after squads of reserves had come to their assistance.

SHIP PURCHASE BILL OCCUPIES CONGRESS

Washington, Jan. 18.—Chief interest in congress today centered in the outcome of tonight's caucus of senate Democrats on the government ship purchase bill, for upon its action depends the fate of that measure. All hope of the passage at this session of any general legislation as well as some of the appropriation bills practically having been given up owing to the legislative tangle in the senate.

Tonight's caucus, the second one on the shipping bill, is for the purpose of passing upon a number of amendments to the measure. Democrats are divided over the form of the bill; vigorous opposition having developed to the government ownership feature at Saturday's night caucus. They are confronted also with the unalterable opposition of the Republicans who have announced their intention of defeating the bill if possible. Some of the Democrats believe, however, that if the government ownership and a government controlled steamship corporation feature are eliminated from the bill at tonight's caucus the measure can be passed and that it will have the support of progressive Republicans.

VILLA ATTEMPTS TO ADJUST TROUBLES

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 18.—Gen. Villa with the main group of his army, is expected to return today to Mexico City in an attempt to adjust the situation of the convention government, incidental to the flight Saturday from the capital of Huahliu Gutierrez, the provisional president and the appointment to that place of Roque Gonzalez Garza.

Mexico City was reported in a state of disorder only equalled by the Diaz-Huerta uprising by the Madero government in 1912. General Angeles, the Villa commander, who yesterday occupied Monterrey, an important center in eastern Mexico, has appealed for the immediate sending there of American Red Cross supplies contracted for some weeks ago by Philip C. Hanna, American consul general to Mexico at Monterrey. General Angeles described as desperate the condition of the populace at Monterrey. Angeles probably will proceed at once to Mexico City to assist Villa in the adjustment of the situation there.

Villa is abandoning temporarily at least, the campaign against the Carranza forces. Angeles has been mentioned prominently as a probable successor to Gutierrez. Roque Gonzalez Garza, it is said, was appointed only temporarily.

J. P. MORGAN SEES WILSON

Washington, Jan. 18.—J. P. Morgan was on President Wilson's list of callers today. The financier declined to say in advance what matters he would discuss with the president, but declared that the principal object of his mission here at this time was in connection with a meeting of the advisory council of the Federal Reserve system, of which he is a member.

Problems in connection with the Alaskan railroad, with particular reference to the Copper River and Northwestern railroad, which Mr. Morgan has offered to sell to the government for use as a part of the proposed railway to connect the Alaskan coast with the coal fields, was said to be one of the objects of Mr. Morgan's visit at the White House. He was to discuss the matter with Secretary Lano also.

There is talk of a big trade between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. Some of the old time stars of both teams are to be involved. The trade clouds in a baseball way are hanging low these days.

SUMMER COTTAGES ARE RAIDED BY ROBBERS

River pirates have been playing their profession at Camp Riverside located on the Dr. P. M. Stewart farm about one mile above Seiserville the past few days.

Saturday morning Val Roth, who went out to do some repair work, discovered that the two story house of Charles Bennett, of 631 Eighth street, has been broken into. He notified the owner by phone and Charles, Will and Harry Bennett hurried to the camp only to find that the house had been completely ransacked from top to bottom.

It is thought the robbery was committed some time Friday night. A fine camera, rubber boots, all kinds of canned fruit, groceries, old clothes, vegetables and everything in the line of eatables was carried off. Nothing was left turned by the robbers in their search. The remains of a fine meal were on the table when the Bennetts arrived Saturday morning. Mud on the porch steps show that the robbers shined up the posts and entered through an upstairs window. They left by the front door. The thieves took only the best of the clothes.

Charles Wertz, real estate man, has three houses at the camp, and Charles and Otto Zoellner have one. Henry Goodman, watchman of the camp, lives in a cottage he is longing to Wertz, but he knew nothing of the robbery until notified by Roth. Saturday evening about 8 o'clock the watchman fired at a man who was trying to enter the two story furnished house owned by Mr. Wertz. A careful survey was made of the premises Sunday morning and footprints could be easily seen about the Wertz house. The porch posts were muddy and a screen in an upstairs window had been tampered with. Nothing was missing, however.

Heavy wire for rose bushes provided a regular ladder for the robbers at the Zoellner house where muddy footprints were found on the roof.

JACK A. JOHNSON MAY BE BARRED FROM MEXICO; "TOO MUCH" CRIES LIL ARTHA

Reports from Mexico declare that efforts may be made to detain Johnson when he seeks to enter that country. Carranza is determined to prevent the big smoke's entry if he possibly can. Johnson is now in South America and plans to travel northward and cross the Mexican border. If he is restrained the humiliation will no doubt cut him deeply. Further developments are eagerly awaited.

Unless Jack Johnson can display the unperturbed of a recognized American citizen his entrance into Mexico from South America may be deterred. Carranza, the distinguished Mexican statesman, has declared his determination to delay the big smoke when he endeavors to travel to Juarez, the proposed scene of his fight with Jess Willard.

That would be a humiliation to Johnson. It is well known that America, the scene of his youth and childhood, has forsaken him and to have Mexico treat him with the same repulse that Willard may crop his crown.

Napoleon's Return

The shift of Napoleon Lajoie from Cleveland back to Philadelphia recalls the stirring episodes of 1901 and the big financial shift which has favored the player of late years.

Lajoie, then a 300 hitter, was getting $2,000 a year. He offered to stick for $3,000 and the Philly owners came near choking to death when he named this price.

Comie Mack, then building the Athletics, met the figures, but when the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania held the reserve clause legal and barred him from playing in that state Charlie Somers, of Cleveland, the greatest man in baseball, offered the big Frenchman a four-year contract at $4,000 a year. Larry to get the money whether or not he played the game. This was the first of the big salaries for players.

DECISION TO COME WEDNESDAY

The big mess into which the Federal League has forced the grand old national game will be stirred up this week in Chicago, and the outcome will be watched with keen interest by the millions throughout the country. The suit of the Feds to dissolve the National Commission and thus disrupt the government of the sport—a government which has been a complete success and which is absolutely essential to the interests of all concerned in the game—will be heard on Wednesday in the United States Court before Judge Kane, Vice-Monroe, of London, the judge who ruled the Standard Oil company $25,000,000 and so many years ago. There will be no postponement of the hearing if the forces of organized ball can prevent it, as the members of the commission and all the magnates are very anxious to have the decision made and the case settled as soon as possible so that the present tight situation may be cleared up.

MR. WAGNER PREDICTS

Honus Wagner is going to redeem himself this season. The good natured champion says he is going to hit 200 this season. From how the old time stars get into the prophetic class as soon as Father Time visit their heels.

Force Of Habit

It may be that Comie has figured out how Force of Habit will operate in Nap Lajoie's behalf when the French veteran comes to the Mackinnon camp fire.

When Larry left the Mackinnon in 1901 he left with a batting average of .322, his highest mark—and a higher mark than any man now in baseball ever set. In addition to which he scored 125 runs in 141 games only two runs short of Cobb's 127 runs record established in 116 games through 1911.

MAY LEGALIZE BOXING

A strong effort will be made to have boxing legalized at the present session of the Ohio Legislature. Many Ohio cities already permit boxing and Cincinnati and Cleveland legislators it is said will introduce a bill to give incorporated exhibition companies a license to pull off six and ten round affairs.

Good For Old Honus

Wagner has been offered as high as $1,500 a week to appear in vaudeville. No chance. On one occasion a tobacco house began collecting the signatures of prominent ball players which permitted the use of their photographs in certain cigarette packages. All agreed except Wagner. A friend of the pitcher in Pittsburgh was offered $50 to get his consent. He told Wagner about it. "I'll give you a check for fifty to square the account," said Wagner, "but I don't believe in smoking cigarettes." The signature was never obtained.

MANY APPROACH SACRAMENTS

The Holy Name Society and a large number of laymen received communion at St. Mary's church Sunday morning. Rev. Father T. Gabel has fixed upon the third Sunday of each month as the regular communion day for the men and boys of the parish and is urging laymen to attend the early mass on that day, whether they approach the sacraments or not. The Married Ladies' Society and the Young Ladies' Sodality now also have their regularly appointed Sundays for communion, thereby giving a systematic arrangement all around.

A NEW TIMES FEATURE.

The Times today begins the publication of a new feature, one that will be found of special interest to the young folks of the family. The feature consists of a series of Animal Jingles. They are unusually clever and will furnish a little amusement as well as giving a good moral at the end. These Animal Jingles are written by Alice Crow Galk, a daughter of former justice of the supreme court, William B. Crow.

Thus gradually we are rounding out The Times in an effort to make it a complete home paper, one that will interest all classes of readers from the oldest to the youngest. We have a few more good things in store and will shortly announce them.

TWO WEEKS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The following review of the first two weeks of the legislature that was elected to "run the state on business principles," will be found both interesting and illuminating:

Columbus, O., Jan. 18.—In behalf of economy the Republicans of the Eighty-first general assembly fooled away two whole weeks, and then took adjournment without accomplishing anything, or even completely perfecting an organization. The journals which appeared on the desks of the members at the closing day of last week when adjournment was taken indicated that the Senate and the House had actually met in session and had by their first act created the numerous elective positions formerly held by appointment under civil service, a page of the journal being given over to record the election of cuspidor cleaners.

Then again in the interest of economy it is recorded that each member of the assembly has been voted a brand new set of the general code of Ohio laws, at twenty-five dollars per head.

But the greatest act of the first two weeks was that which voted to certain and sundry gentlemen the sum of fifty dollars per each for the assistance lent by them in the organization of the houses. And just to get in while the getting is good, some of the men who stood door duty and carried messages in the organization of the house two years ago were included for good measure.

In the discussion of the house resolution, Representative John Kramer, Democratic floor leader, called attention to the fact that a good time for the Republicans to keep a pledge for economy was now at the beginning of the new administration. He ironically referred to the fact that if as charged there was a treasury deficit then there was all the more reason to hedge on unnecessary expenses, and act lazier in efficient manner.

The Republican Senate seems to be in better working order than the Republican House. At least it does not take them so long to do nothing and they can reach the point of adjournment in quicker time. However, when it comes to handing out presents the two houses of the general assembly run nip and tuck, with the difference that the senate is more liberal and goes out into the highways and byways. For example the last act of record of the Senate is the vote which made a present of fifty dollars to Clark C. Doughty, for assistance in organization, when as a matter of fact Mr. Doughty did not get any nearer than the other side of Broad street. It may be enlightening to know that the present of the fifty dollars was voted from the Republican side of the Senate, and in the face of the fact that in caucus the Democrats held he was not entitled to it.

Speaker Conover plans to be czar of the House, and the majority is chafing under the leash. Not a member of the House was consulted in the makeup of committees, and the speaker served notice that if he wanted any information as to the fitness of men he would ask for it. This taken in connection with Governor Willis' statement to the press that no one was authorized to speak or act for him has the party members guessing.

"Anyway I hope that Warren Harding will be thoughtful enough to write Charlie Dixon a letter from Honolulu and tell him how much he enjoys the sunshine out there," said the man sitting next to us on the street car this morning as he looked over at the smiling face of the New Boston leader and lead projector. "W. G. owes Charlie that much after fleeing the country to escape his soul."

At least Count Bechtold was some success as a starter of the war in history even if the old Emperor of Austria did not come to him in the middle of the conflict.

FAIR WARNING.

Of course Squire Platt does not expect that that horse shoe he so ungrudgingly and unselfishly sent to Governor Willis will bring the giver any such good luck as connecting him with the state payroll. Still there might be stranger things to happen. Fred Baker should take notice and send a box of his stogies up to our new rider.

We Need To Live
We need to live—for life is more than eating, drinking, wearing, Than seeking pleasures door to door
And hither, thither, faring, By artificial dress and speech
We teach the world to doubt us, And cry for riches out of reach
While joy lies all about us.

We need to love—for life is more
Than drinking, wearing, eating, The outer mortal striving for,
The inner mortal cheating, The tinsel things of life we clutch
While skies are blue above us, While here beside us at our touch
Are those who long to love us.

We need to learn (for life is more
Than wearing, eating, drinking) A little less of later lore
And more of early thinking, We need to live and love and learn
The simple things to cheer us, To truth established to return
And learn the lesson near us, —Doughlas Malloch.

Professor John Grier Hibben.

Princeton, N. J., Jan. 18.—President John Grier Hibben, of Princeton University, in his annual report to the Board of Trustees expressed the hope that paid coaches in college athletics would soon disappear.

"Athletics are suffering from an overorganized system of coaching," he said, and added that "more responsibility should be placed on team captains. If undergraduates should be released from unnatural domination of their sports by graduates coaches intercollegiate athletics would be liberated from the abnormal influence of a superimposed system which tends to make puppets of the players."

Dora Duck

(Who Had a Bad Temper.)

Miss Dora Duck lived in a field and swam upon a pond; She was a lovely thing to see, a most decided blond. She had a nice, fat, yellow beak and pretty eyes of black, And everybody said she had a most melodious quack.

But Dora Duck, I grieve to say, one dreadful falling had. Her temper, so her family said, was most amazing bad. Whenever she went on the pond with other ducks to play, She'd scold and make an awful fuss unless she had her way.

Her elders sighed and said, "Oh, dear, she'll come to some bad end Unless she makes an effort her dreadful fault to mend." But Dora went right on her way and did not try at all, Until she had a lesson which cured her once for all.

She went out with her sisters to swim one pleasant day. At first they all enjoyed themselves and had a splendid play. Then Dora said: "I'll tell you what I think would be some fun; Let's go and swim on Joneses' pond, it's such a lovely one."

But all the ducklings said, "Oh, no, we will not go away. For Joneses' dog is big and fierce, you've heard our Mother say." So Dora Duck went off alone, as angry as could be. A nice young duck in such a rage is pitiful to see.

But when she got to Joneses' pond the dog ran down the hill. He barked: "How dare you come in here! I'll eat you up, I will!" He stood upon the bank and barked: "I'll eat you, I declare! You're such an ugly tempered duck, I'm sure no one would care."

Then Dora Duck began to cry as loudly as she could: "Please, Joneses' dog, don't eat me up; I'll promise to be good. I'll try to keep my temper and always will be kind. If you will let me go I'll be a better duck, you'll find."

At last the dog said, "Very well, but just remember this: The very first time you are cross I'll eat you up, young miss." So Dora went back to the farm, a great deal wiser bird, And from that day to this she's kept her temper, so I've heard.

A temper is an ugly thing, no one would really choose it; But this is strange, the worse it is, the worse you hate to lose it.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT TRINITY BIBLE CLASS

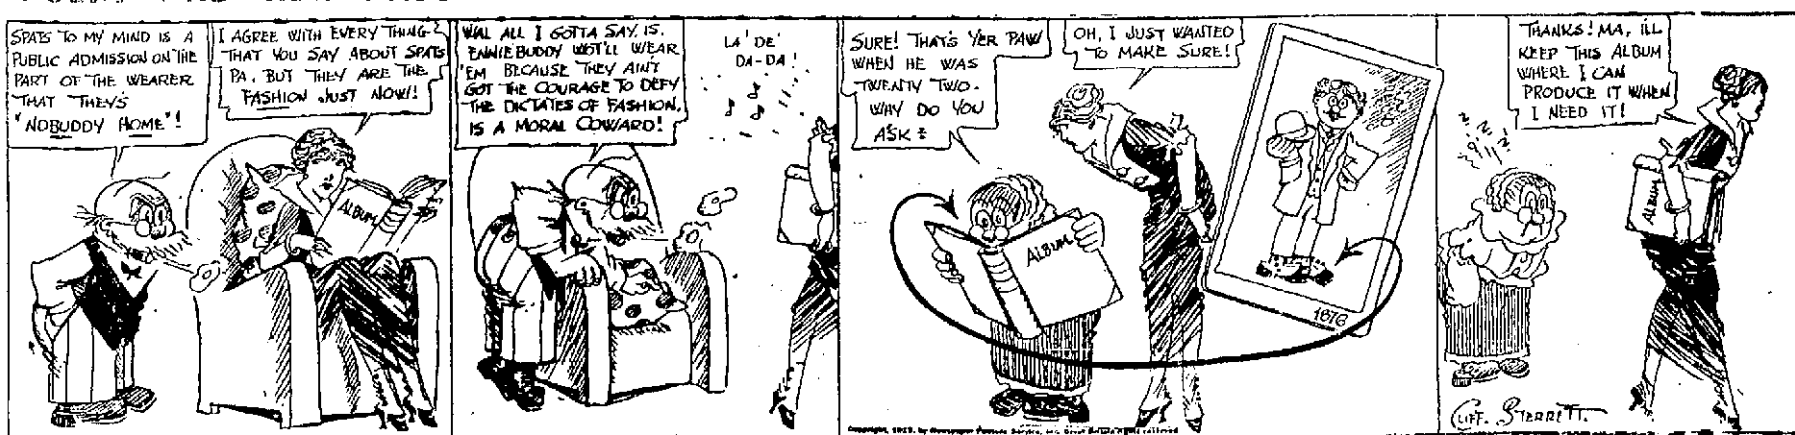

(By P. V. D.)
The big class showed the attendance record up to 200 Sunday morning. Early in the game it was seen that last Sunday's record was going to be sadly shattered and everybody had the smile that won't come off when Mr. Journey of Park avenue, walked in with a delegation of eleven around splinter new members he was certainly given the glad hand. Mr. Hood's side made a gain of 41 and it is up to Mr. Bridwell's side to shake the bushes the coming week or begin to prepare to put on the big show. Mr. Greshel led the singing, assisted by Miss McMillen at the piano. After the opening exercises hustling John McMillen rehearsed the class on the old "Ninety and Nine" song that 99 men are to sing next Sunday evening when Rev. Strocker preaches a special sermon to the men. It's going to be sung to that old tune that our granddaddies sang away back in the old log churches and none of these new fangled tunes now. It looks like there will be one hundred and ninety-nine that will sing instead of ninety-nine from "The way the boys went at it. The Pilgrim Singers favored the class with a fine selection entitled "Is There Room For Me?" We are mighty glad to say they are going to be on the job every Sunday from this time on.

The lesson "The Call of God" was then taken up by the teacher. He stated that "the greatest thing to learn today is the close connection of sin with suffering and punishment. Israel's history not only emphasizes this but it is the matremble law of God."

Guided by the two tests of fleece did not show so much lack of faith in God as he did in himself. What this world needs is men who are willing when God calls them. He said we all are to prone to want some one else to do God's work. We need true leaders and when God calls He always chooses a busy man. The lesson proved very interesting and profitable and the teacher closed with the thought that God has some special work for every man to do and that He looketh first upon the heart and not a man's social or intellectual gifts.

POLLY AND HER PALS

Threatened To Kill An N. & W. Employee, Kimpling Arrested; Is "The Man With Conscience"

John Kimpling, the ex-fireman, tramp and pseudo detective, who has been a source of annoyance to Ironton and Portsmouth authorities of late, was again arrested early Monday morning.

Kimpling, it is said, had threatened to kill an N. & W. terminal employee for ordering him to vacate the scale house at the East Portsmouth terminals where he had spent the night. Picking up a club he entered a nearby caboose and vowed he would brain the first man who dared enter. The police were notified and Officers Moore and Goings hurried to the scene. They met Kimpling as he emerged from a restaurant on Norfolk street. He willingly submitted to arrest, his only complaint being that they were not going to treat him to an automobile ride instead of a trip down town on a street car.

As soon as the mayor learned of the arrest he ordered Kimpling taken before the probate court, the N. & W. employee whom he threatened, having promised to prefer a lunacy charge against him. Kimpling was given a workhouse sentence last week but it was suspended on condition that he return to West Virginia and remain there. Officer Beaumont had caught him acting in a suspicious manner around the Alex. M. Glockner hardware store. When searched a piece of garden hose with some lead pipe attached one end, was found concealed on his person. He boasted that it was his "fighting stick and grandma chaser." He made a threat to "do up some of these mayors around here."

Some weeks ago Kimpling, who is a homeless wanderer, became conscience stricken and surrendered to the Ironton authorities, declaring that he had assaulted and thrown a negro from a swiftly moving freight train near Haverhill, two months ago. His story was discredited and after a few days he was released.

Kimpling when searched Monday had a petition containing quite a number of signatures asking his appointment as detective to succeed the late James A. Bauers.

"Runaway June"
Columbia Today

The first number of "Runaway June" will be shown at the Columbia today and you don't want to miss the first part of this wonderful story, as it is going to be the talk of the whole town. After a few weeks everybody will be asking, "Have you seen Runaway June at the Columbia?"

The Columbia has the exclusive showing of this great story and commencing today they will have it every Monday for fifteen consecutive weeks. It is without doubt one of the best and most interesting stories ever written and the author, George Randolph Chester, received $25,000 from the Reliance Motion Picture company of New York, for the privilege of using it in motion pictures.

Almost all of the great stars of the Mutual Film company are used in the production of this picture, and the principal character of "June," is taken by Miss Norma Phillips, known as "The Mutual Girl," and considered one of the best and most beautiful young women in motion pictures today.

Remember there will be no return dates on this great picture at the Columbia and if you are interested in one of the very best stories ever written you must see the first number at the Columbia today, either afternoon or evening.

In addition to this picture we will show the current number of Pathe's Weekly, with all the late pictures of interest, including many pictures of the great war in Europe.

THE GIRL WHO SAYS DAMN WITH IMPUNITY

Drawn by Eva Shepherd.

She's the black sheep of Mrs. Grundy's prim flock, a cuddly little incorrigible. She's a rumplesome, tumbleome, sparkly-eyed person, a cherished little imp of caprice who climbs astride the topmost rail of silly conventions and carries the old lady under the chin—she's the one girl in the world to say damn! and get off with suspended sentence.

Her laugh is infection itself, a trickily, tinkly, tremulous sort of a music to vibrate on man's heart strings. She's deadly to his self-sufficiency and as devastating as sunshine to the frost of displeasure. Her tempers are diverting moments of flaming cheeks and flashing sparks, tempestuous rebellions that end in tears, choky sobs and a spent little heap of quivering sorrow.

Her scoldings are delicious experiences where because blacks both Reason's eyes and her love's as irrevocable and fatal as dum dum bullets. Her name may be Mary or Martha, but all men will call her Sweetheart.

FLOYD SMITH JUMPS ON TRAIN; MAKES GETAWAY

Floyd Smith, who was arrested a few weeks ago for alleged chicken stealing and later committed to the county jail for vagrancy, made a bold get-away from C. Brown, a parole officer of the Mansfield Reformatory, near the N. & W. depot Monday morning.

Brown was taking Smith back to Mansfield for violation of parole, he being under suspended sentence for alleged robbing the store of Pawnbroker James Manning, of Chillicothe street. Officer Joe Bonzo accompanied Mr. Brown to the Smith home on Ninth street, just above Waller, to get the young man. He was made to walk between them. Although he had a pair of handcuffs, Brown did not place them on his prisoner. When they approached the Tenth street crossing, Bonzo was slightly in the lead. Smith suddenly drew back and gave the parole officer a violent push, and himself swung about the Williams express train, just as it got under way. Brown fired a pistol shot into the air to halt Smith, but he continued rushing from coach to coach until he reached the baggage car, when he alighted and made good his escape. The conductor seeing Bonzo on the run, had slowed down the train, but to no avail. Brown caught the train for Columbus, leaving word for the police to round up Smith and declaring he would return for him when they did.

Cesspool Of Filth And Rot Is Sunday's Tribute To Cincinnati

The Times Star says: "I am going to give you the worst Sabbath-breaking cities of this country in their order," said Sunday, in his sermon on the Ten Commandments, at the Philadelphia tabernacle. "San Francisco comes first; then Cincinnati, a perfect cesspool of filth and rot; then New Orleans and St. Louis. They are in the order of their viciousness and Sabbath-breaking proclivities that damn and rot the country today."

This is the statement credited to Evangelist "Billy" Sunday. He is alleged to have made the remark during his revival campaign in Philadelphia Friday.

Cincinnati ministers are planning to bring him here in 1916. The Rev. John Herget is chairman of the Cincinnati Sunday Revival committee, which is trying to see if it is a feasible project.

The Rev. Dr. Herget was greatly interested in Sunday's reported comment. Dr. Herget said Saturday: "I suppose that Sunday is approximately correct—he has had more opportunity of studying these cities than I have. But I would have placed New Orleans before Cincinnati, in the matter of Sabbath breaking," said Dr. Herget. "My classification would have been San Francisco, first; New Orleans, second and Cincinnati, third."

The terms used by the evangelist in condemning Cincinnati do not change Dr. Herget's view of the good that could be accomplished by Sunday, should the committee succeed in bringing him here.

"It is this way," said the Cincinnati minister. "What Sunday says, taken from the context of his sermon and printed, gives a very different impression from that gained by hearing him preach. I have studied this phase of the matter. I went to Columbus, also to South Bend, to hear him, and found nothing that gave the impression which we gain from the published excerpts. I think that there is everything in

Apart from the background, which he constructs, they lack the force and constructive power which are his, for he served until Emory Lattimer was appointed, and when that office was vacant.

ind resigned in December Governor James M. Cox once more placed him at the head of the bureau.

Upon his installation he dismissed a number of persons employed to liquidate moribund banks and severely criticized Mr. Lattimer for alleged extravagance. These allegations have been fully resented by William N. Shaffer, of Building, chief liquidator, who retired yesterday.

Although a Republican, Walters was strongly opposed by members of that party, and their protest were joined with those of Democrats whose criticisms of his policy were severe.

In assuming the office Superintendent Hall said that Governor Willis had "expressed the wish that the department be conducted only as an institution to safeguard the interests of depositors and people who invest their business to financial institutions." In addition the official request was made that in the supervision the most rigid economy be practiced. Mr. Hall stated that both requests would be rigidly executed.
